The Woman's Benefit Association Of The Maccabees

The Largest, Strongest, and most Progressive Society of Women in the World.

Non-political and non-sectarian. Offers more opportunities to women than any other society. Good training and future success, love of humanity and protection of helpless little ones.

A splendid opportunity for broad-minded and sympathetic women to join this great fraternal chain of one hundred and eighty-six thousand women banded together for the betterment of their own sex. This Organizaton has a national reputation for this great work in the interest of women, and has already paid into homes of deceased and distressed members over twelve million dollars, every dollar going into some home in time of want and distress. We cannot begin to record the deeds of loving kindness and sympathy that have gone hand in hand with these disbursements.

This Organization has risen to high position in Fraternal Insurance through the hearty co-operation of its members and has built up by the management of its officers, a reserve of over eight million dollars.

The Woman's Benefit Association of the Maccabees was founded in Michigan by Michigan women in 1892; the cornerstone of its own building, laid in Port Huron, October 22, 1915, being the first woman's benefit association in the world to erect its own building.

Your loved ones are protected by our death benefits; we will see that you have proper burial with our burial benefits. We will take care of you when sick through sick benefits and hospital service.

First in Fraternity, First in Stability
First in the Hearts of its Members

We want a competent woman to act as organizer in this locality. For further information write Mrs. Alberta V. Droelle, Great Commander for Michigan, 411 St. Aubin Ave. Detroit, Mich

Garrick Theatre.

"Tonight's the Night"

Direct from its triumphant runs in New York, Boston and Philadelphia, the original London Gaiety theatre production, "Tonight's the Night," the most enjoyable of all recent musical comedies of this famous British institution, is to be given its first presentation at the Garrick theatre, Detroit, next week, beginning Monday evening. The score of "Tonight's the Night," is by Paul A. Rubens, among whose other recent successes have been "The Sunshine Girl" and "The Girl from Utah." It is said to sparkle with exquisite song gems and novel dancing numbers, among which are "Pink and White," "Play Me That Tune," "I'm a Millionaire," "Please Don't Hurt with Me," "Boots and Shoes" and "Dancing Mad." The large company which is to give this joyous and blithe musical comedy is headed by such talented artists as Renee Parker, who will play the heroine, June; Dorothy Maynard, Audrey Maple, Alice Gordon and Phyllis Maude; Laddie Cliff, who will have the principal comic role and will contribute a lot of his eccentric dances; Cyril Chadwick, Stewart Baird, Alfred Hemming, Wilfred Seagram, Philip Travers, Edward Naimby and many others. Nor must one forget the London Gaiety Beauty Chorus, which contains whole bevies of graceful, languorous and well drilled London belles.

Unlike the usual American imported musical comedy, "Tonight's the Night" is presented exactly as it was arranged for London.

Cow Followed Compass.

A poor tiller of the soil had owned for a number of years a valuable cow. Of a sudden he began to find that the beast always stood in her stall with her tail toward the south where the manger was, her head toward the north. He tried various means of making the cow stand the other way, her head to the south and her tail to the north, but no matter how many times he set her properly in her stall she always turned around. Finally there was nothing to do but rebuild the stall to suit the cow. Somewhat later war came and the poor tiller of the soil had to join his regiment and go and fight for the fatherland. His wife and children, reduced to dire poverty, were forced to sell the cow to the butcher, who slaughtered her and sold her meat at famine prices to his fellow townsmen. At the same time, however, the mystery of the animal's unaccountable behavior was cleared up. In the body of the cow was found a small compass which the poor man, her owner, had lost some months before from his watch chain. Evidently it had fallen among the hay and been eaten.

For Unpleasant Odors.

Burnt coffee will free the house from cooking odors. So will a smouldering piece of string. A handful of lavender flowers in a bowl with lemon peel covered with boiling water imparts a gentle fragrance to an entire apartment.

An Uplifted Feeling.

Nothing gives a person more spiritual satisfaction than getting to church on time once in a while, for a change, and not getting there out of breath.
