HOME

One thing about Birmingham, the dear old town is absolutely dustless.

The Men's Bible Class of the Methodist Bible school have a Rally Dinner this Friday evening at the church. A program of speeches and music has been arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. John Heth returned home from their Washington, D. C., trip and G. A. R. celebration Sunday last, having had a most enjoyable trip and no accidents.

Edgar A. Freer will sell a lot of cattle and horses tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at his new horse market on Haines street, just across the tracks from Woodward avenue.

On and after Monday, October 11, the unlersigned hardware dealers will close their stores at 6 o'clock p. m., eastern standard time.

THE BIRMINGHAM HARDWARE.
HUSTON HARDWARE CO.

A great big, tall, fine looking young man called on us the other day and being with Homer G. we at once recognized Bert Leonard all the way from his Mexico and Texas home. He certainly is a fine gentleman, same as ever.

About twenty years ago Mr. and Mrs. James Penman, of Scranton, Pa., visited Dr. C. M. Raynale and family. They are now duplicating the event and can't help but admire our beautiful streets headed by Woodward avenue and Maple.

Well, well! Our long time friend, James B. Hunt, is suffering from a fall, a combination of ladder, broken limb and Jim. While suffering greatly he is convalescing and we hope soon to see him around again the same old boy as good as ever.

James F. Wooster and family have vacated the Birmingham Inn, having handed the reins over to Walter Allen. Mr. Wooster and family are snugly settled in the new house owned by Mrs. Arabella Miller on Bates, and are enjoying themselves better than ever.

About as pretty a home wedding as one ever sees was on Tuesday, September 28, when Miss Blanche J. Evans, daughter of Mrs. Hattie Evans, and Turner H. Broughton were united in marriage. The event was a joyful one. After October 1 the new home can be found at Jackson, Michigan.

The October meeting of the Ladies' Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church will be held at the home of Mrs. F. G. Porter, Woodward avenue, next Wednesday, October 13. Reports from the Synodical meetings which are being held in Detroit this week. All come.

That "disgruntled taxpayer" in last week's issue who said the Woodward avenue bridge was being lowered two feet and that the D. U. R. was not notified of pavement till July 27, wrote a falsehood in both cases. He was a man who had his water turned off because he did not pay his honest debts.—W. D. C.

According to the terms of the new drain law passed recently by the legislature, hereafter it will require the signature of but one taxpayer and four freeholders to a petition for the cleaning out of a drain. The law formerly required that the signatures of one-fourth of those to be levied by the drain be attached to the petition.

The concrete road to Detroit is now open from Lincoln avenue clear to Detroit river. From Lincoln avenue north the driveway is not so smooth. In fact, it is quite interrupted. But patience, kind sirs! In time all will be well, and our dire extremities will be forgotten and Birmingham, beautiful Birmingham, will be on the map again.

The Eccentric in its past half century of life once or twice has been beyond our village limits, and in all our travels we never found so clean, neat and tidy a restaurant as the one in the interurban depot in Detroit. Prices so reasonable! Just half what ordinary depot waiting rooms charge, and polite waiters, prompt and pleasant. Don't know who runs it, but it sure is O. K. in every respect.

Rally-Day Cruise to Beulaland, in the specially-chartered Bible Ship "Glad Tidings," of the First Methodist Episcopal Church Bible School Line, on Sunday, October 10. Boat leaves Birmingham dock, corner of Maple Avenue and Henrietta Street, exactly at noon.

Special exercises will be held in the ship's cabin. Fine views of sea and shore. Accommodations for 450 passengers. Parents should accompany their children. People who have never traveled by this line are especially invited.

Round oak dining room table as good as new for sale cheap. Mrs. T. W. Miner.—Adv.

Mrs. Ella S. Benjamin enjoyed the G. A. R. program all last week in Washington, D. C.

Miss Pearle Jones spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Lottie Jones, at Chesaning.

Have you noticed Wm. B. Brown's new Paige? Big as a Pullman car, looks like one and rides just as easy.

Box rents are coming in fast at the P. O. Over half of the entire sum to be collected was paid in the first day of October.

Miss Anna Vokes, of Troy, after visiting friends in Pontiac, left for Owosso where she will visit relatives for a time, also others in Saginaw county.

At last we have it. Mr. Ludwig Baechle himself, manager of the Temple theatre, will perform Monday night. We have all been curious to know what he can do; now let's all turn out to see.

On and after Monday, October 11, the undersigned hardware dealers will close their stores at 6 o'clock p. m., eastern standard time.

The $34,900 bond issue submitted to the electors October 5 was carried there being but nine "noes" out of 125. This will place the council in shape to pay all debts outstanding and go on with trunk sewers and disposal plant.

Visiting around among her old friends with headquarters at Mrs. M. J. Taber's, the home of her daughter Libbie, Mrs. Louis Converse, of Owosso, is improving every sixty minutes. The good lady looks fine, is active and enjoys life. We are glad.

Durward Wilkinson, general manager of everything, has just placed about town signs directing autoists how to arrive, pass through, and get either to Pontiac or Detroit. A valuable move that all will rise up and call blessed—accent on the "ed."

The Queen Esther Circle will hold its October meeting on Monday evening, October 11, at 7:30 at the home of Miss Gladys Barber, North Woodward avenue. A most cordial invitation is extended to all the young ladies of the M. E. church and congregation.

The Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star meets in Battle Creek next week, October 12, 13 and 14. A grand movement has been made for the entertainment of the delegates. Among the features of the entertainment is a grand ball in the new $85,000 Masonic Temple. The Postum Cereal Co. will entertain all the delegates and friends Tuesday afternoon. The Kellogg Toasted Corn Flake Co. will entertain at their magnificent plant Wednesday morning. The Battle Creek Sanitarium will keep "open house" all the time. The Country Club gives the use of their golf grounds and club house. Goguac lake will blazen the honor of the event. Thirty five hundred twinkling stars are expected. The delegates from Birmingham Chapter, No. 220, O. E. S., are Mrs. I. N. Baker, Mrs. Jay Hunt and Samuel Howling.

HOW'S YOUR FORD

A Chance to Make Good Money Out of Your Ford Car.—Let's All Go.

More Ford cars are owned and driven in Michigan today than any other make, but the state highways are not the best race tracks for the safety of driver and public. However, lots of the men who drive Fords have a keen desire to see how fast the little cars would go.

Owners who are thus inclined can try out their cars at high speed on the Michigan State Fair track, in Detroit, on October 17, when the first Michigan Ford championship race for a monster silver trophy and $500 in cash will be put on. In the event that more than ten cars are entered, the race will be run in heats, with the cash prizes for the fleat winners. Any number of entries up to 150 can be handled.

To become owner of this cup, a driver will have to win it three times, and the trophy will be put up for competition at least once every year, but not more than twice in one year. Any Ford car of the Model T style is eligible, provided it is owned and driven by a resident of Michigan.

This race will conclude the annual automobile speed events at the State Fair track, and will be the only contest of the day. Drivers must be 21 years of age, and the cars must be in mechanical condition to not endanger the lives of other drivers. Entry blanks for the race can be obtained from George W. Dickinson, secretary and manger of the Michigan Agricultural Society, Detroit.

On and after Monday, October 11, the undersigned hardware dealers will close their stores at 6 o'clock p. m., eastern standard time.

We're Opposed to Mail Order Concerns Because—

They have never contributed a cent to furthering the interests of our town—

Every cent received by them from this community is a direct loss to our merchants—

In almost every case their prices can be met right here, without delay in receiving goods and the possibility of mistakes in filling orders.

But—

The natural human trait is to buy where goods are cheapest. Local pride is usually secondary in the game of life as played today.

Therefore

Mr. Merchant and Business Man, meet your competitors with their own weapons—advertising.

Advertise!

The local field is yours. All you need do is to avail yourself of the opportunities offered. An advertisement in this paper will carry your message to hundreds of homes in this community. It is the surest medium of killing your greatest competitor. A space size that won't cost much. Come in and see us about it.
