The Fine Car

That Outsells Any Other

Do you know that last year this new-type HUDSON won the top place among fine cars? It outsold any other with a price above $1200. It led both in dollars and cars.

Yet this new model—at $1350—is selling twice as fast.

This new car is exquisite. It has the Yacht-Line body. It has the new Lustrous finish. It has extra room. Luxury has been added in a dozen different ways.

This is the type of car which men want when they buy for keeps. It is a car to be proud of. It has beauty, finish, comfort and room. It is a car designed by Howard E. Coffin and built by HUDSON standards.

It offers a value found in no other high class car. The price has dropped $400 inside of 21 months because of a quadrupled output. Yet 51 improvements have been added in that time.

The demand for HUDSON this summer will exceed the supply, just as it did last summer. The sale so far has averaged more than 200 cars per day. The output is 100 daily. If you want this car, and want early delivery, we urge you to see it now.
