Garrick Theatre.

"The Bubble."

Not since David Warfield came forth as Herr Barwig in "The Music Master" has the American stage witnessed, it is said, such another remarkable achievement of mingled laughter and tears, heart interest and pathos combined with rich eccentric humor and dialect comedy, as Louis Mann's latest and crowning achievement—that of Gustave Mueller in "The Bubble," coming to the Garrick theatre next Monday evening for a week's engagement. The play has furnished the long awaited revelation of this famous character actor in a part worthy of his highest powers. Ever since those memorable days of his early triumphs in the roles of Von Moser in "The Strange Adventures of Miss Brown," Hans von Sheffenburger in "The Girl from Paris," Inspector Nix in "The Telephone Girl" and Hichatul in "Al on Account of Eliza," playgoers have recognized his supremacy in the art of "broken-German" dialect comedy. Both New York and Chicago have heartily applauded the play, which is a three act comedy drama by Edward Locke, author of "The Climax" and "The Case of Becky." Its plot concerns the domestic joys and sorrows of the old delicatessen dealer, who is persuaded by a "fake" promoter to buy a gold brick in the shape of fraudulent mining stock, who suddenly believes himself rich and enters upon a period of reckless extravagance. Mr. Mann runs the whole gamut of the keyboard of the emotions in the various scenes of this play.

He used many remedies, but this is the only one that ever helped him. No man, young or old, can afford to neglect symptoms of kidney trouble. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

AVENUE

"The Two Orphans"

"The Two Orphans," Kate Claxton's version of the immortal story of the days which preceded the French revolution in Paris, is the play which has been selected for the second week of the third season of stock at the Avenue theatre, Detroit.

The story of Louise and Henriette, sisters by adoption, who arrive in Paris, and instead of being met by friends are separated by an unprincipled nobleman, who takes Henriette to his palace and leaves Louise, helpless and blind, in the streets, is one that never fails to appeal. A notorious old woman finds the blind girl and promises to find her sister for her, but instead forces her to sing in the streets. Several acts lead up to the strongest scene and climax where the girls are happily reunited.

For the balance of the current week, the bill is "The Charity Ball." The newspaper reviewers have been eloquent in their praise of the company.

Schools May Bar Children.

Common colds are contagious and Boards of Health in many cities are considering barring children with colds from school. Foley's Honey and Tar is an old and reliable family medicine and frees children from coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Parents may save trouble by giving before school opens. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

THE CITY STREETS

BY ELSWORTH PLUMSTEAD

From away out in Des Moines, Iowa, our old friend and fellow sufferer in sin and iniquity, sends us the following effusion. He is a little ahead, but, by Heck, we are betting he is telling the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth.

They took a little gravel
And they took a little tar,
With various ingredients
Imported from afar.

They hammered it and rolled it,
And when they went away
They said they had a pavement
That would last for many a day.

But they came with picks and smote it,
To lay a water main,
And, in time, they called the workmen
To put it back again.

To run a line of gas pipe
They took it up once more,
And later put it back again
Just where it was before.

They took it up for conduits
To run the telephone,
And then they put it back again,
As hard as any stone.

They took it up for wires
To feed the 'lectric light,
And then they put it back again,
Which was no more than right.

Oh, the pavement's full of furrows,
There are sink-holes everywhere,
You'd like to ride upon it,
But it seldom that you dare.

It's a very handsome pavement,
A credit to the town,
They're always digging of it up,
Or putting it down.

Remarkable Success of These Talented Physicians in the Treatment of Chronic Diseases Offer Their Services Free of Charge

The United Doctors, licensed by the state of Michigan for the treatment of deformities and all nervous and chronic diseases of men, women and children, offer to all who call on this trip, consultation, examination, advice free, making no charge whatever, except the actual cost of treatment. All that is asked in return for these valuable services is that every person treated will state the results obtained to their friends and thus prove to the sick and afflicted in every city and locality, that at last treatments have been discovered that are reasonably sure and certain in their effect.

These doctors are among America's leading stomach and nerve specialists and are experts in the treatment of chronic diseases and so great and wonderful have been their results that in many cases it is hard to find the dividing line between skill and miracle.

Diseases of the stomach, intestines, liver, blood, skin, nerves, heart, spleen, kidneys, or bladder, rheumatism, sciatica, diabetes, bed-wetting, tape worm, leg ulcers, weak lungs, and those afflicted with long-standing, deep seated, chronic diseases, that have baffled the skill of the family physicians, should not fail to call. Deafness often has been cured in sixty days.

According to their system no more operations for appendicitis, gall stones, tumors, goiter, piles, etc., as these diseases are treated without operation or hyperdermic injection.

They were among the first in America to earn the name of "Bloodless Surgeons," by doing away with the knife with blood and with all pain in the successful treatment of these dangerous diseases.

If you have kidney or bladder troubles bring a two ounce bottle of your urine for chemical analysis and microscopic examination.

No matter what your ailment may be, no matter what others may have told you, no matter what experience you may have had with other physicians, it will be to your advantage to see them at once. Have it forever settled in your mind. If your case is incurable they will give you such advice as may relieve and stay the disease. Do not put off this duty you owe yourself or friends or relatives who are suffering because of your sickness, as a visit at this time may help you.

Worn-out and run-down men or women, no matter what your ailment, consult them. It costs you nothing.

Remember, this last free offer is for this visit only.

Married ladies come with their husbands and minors with their parents.—Adv.
