ALL OVER

The storm put some of the telephone lines out of order last week.

John Stephens, of Davison, recently visited Harmon Hendrickson in Clawson.

Plenty of rain last Sunday. Too much, as it was very warm after the rain.

The two-year-old child of Charles Paddock, of Council Corners, is afflicted with convulsions.

Detroit visitors enjoyed country life at Peter Anderson's in Troy, last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Thos. Renshaw, of Troy, went to the Grace hospital in Detroit Tuesday for an operation for goitre.

Byron Dawson's boys called upon their grandpa, Isaac Dawson, of Troy, for sweet apples last Saturday.

W. H. Codnor, of Clawson, wants to rent a house and barn in the country not more than 18 miles from Birmingham, Mich.

The house of Jesievski's near the log cabin in Troy, was struck by lightning and slightly damaged during the storm last Sunday.

Geo. Hamed and son Whitney, of Kingston, Mich., being here to attend the state fair, visited their relatives at Clawson and Big Beaver.

Ellis Bookham, of Swartz Creek, while attending the state fair visited Stephen Hillis, Linas Bookham and Mrs. Rhoda Hendrickson.

W. H. Codnor gives premiums with the Michigan Farmer and he runs special bargains with Woman's Home Companion and the American Magazine.

Ira Carpenter and wife, of Troy and Avon township line, visited their daughter, Mrs. Harry Reynolds, and son, Walter Carpenter, at Council Corners, last Sunday.

Louie Yager, of LaMotte, Mich., while down to the state fair visited his former neighbors, Alex Sutherland and family at Big Beaver and Mrs. Rhoda Hendrickson at Clawson.

A man by the name of Wood from Detroit is building a house in the High sub-division in Clawson. The contract for laying the cement walls was let to Henry Therman of Detroit.

Joe McBride, of Troy, was in Pontiac last week Wednesday, looking into the matter of having a good road laid by his house and everybody along the line is interested in having a good road made by them.

Mothers, Watch Irritable Children.

That fever, paleness, grinding of teeth while asleep, and coated tongue are indications that your child has worms in its system. Kickapoo Worm Killer quickly gets rid of these parasites. It is perfectly safe for even the most delicate children. It is pleasant to take; has three effective medicinal qualities—acts as a laxative, expels the worms, and tones up the system. Begin treatment today and eliminate the cause of irritableness. 25c.

TROY

Grant Norton has a new Ford auto.

Rev. Chase left for Port Huron Tuesday.

F. D. Cutting is building a new silo on his farm west of Troy.

Carpenters are working on the frame of H. C. Martell's new house.

Morris Wattles will leave September 18 for the Michigan Agricultural College.

Mrs. Frank Leonard and Mrs. Anna Mercier are improving slowly at this writing.

Maxwell Cutting returned from a two months' western trip Sunday morning.

Bert Tyack will go out of the milk business October 1 and will sell off his stock of cows later.

Mrs. Isadore Hendricks, of West Troy, was an over Sunday guest at the Chas. Aspinwall home.

Harry Blount and family, of Pontiac, motored to their farm home, "Syran Gen," the first of the week.

Pearle Burrows was home from her Toledo school over Sunday. Delayed nearly three hours enroute.

Mrs. Ella Renshaw went to Grace hospital the first of the week for an operation on the thyroid gland.

Webb Hendricks, having sold his farm to Detroit parties, has been hired as manager and will remain on the farm.

Mrs. Emm Baldus, of Birmingham, and Miss Agnes Parks, of Des Moines, spent the day recently with their sister, Mrs. Mary Girmus.

The terrible down pour of rain Sunday morning did more damage to waterways, roadbeds and cellars than the heavy rains the fore part of August.

Excitement ran high Sunday morning at this place. People came from far and near to see the D. U. R. workmen prop the track with ties to let cars pass over the washouts.

The marriage of Frank Shearman to Miss Vera Sipperley, of Rochester, takes place September 18. Many of their intimate friends were shown through F. Shearman's new house Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Leonard, when returning from the state fair Friday, had grave fears lest they and the heavy Buick machine they were in would be taken up bodily by the heavy pressure of wind and rain, over on the State road.

His Rest Was Broken.

O. D. Wright, Rosemont, Nebraska, writes: "I was bothered with pain in the region of my kidneys. My rest was broken by frequent action of my kidneys. I was advised by my doctor to try Foley Kidney Pills, and one 50c bottle made a well man of me." They relieve rheumatism and backache. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

Self-Consciousness.

"To think about one's self all the while is to turn energy in on one's self continually that might much better go out in unselfish action. The self-conscious person needs to pour out this force of attention and thought, instead of concentrating it on self and wasting it in awkward embarrassment and hurt pride."—Exchange.
