AVENUE

How Hearts Are Broken

Langdon McCormick's play, "How Hearts Are Broken," a standard drama on many thrilling episodes, will be presented by the Avenue Players at the Avenue theatre, Detroit, next week as the third production of a successful season.

The interest of the play is centered around a young girl, who is imposed upon by a young millionaire. The girl becomes a mother. In the meantime, the father of her child meets a young heiress and tries to marry the latter. To encompass this, he tries to do away with the young mother. That he may be free, he plots to have the child done away with through the assistance of an old sailor. The mother is then arrested and placed on trial. There is a realistic third act with a court room scene that rivals that in "Madame X."

"The Two Orphans" is being presented for the balance of the current week. The reviewers have given the play unstinted praise.

WHERE'S THE MAN?

I'm a middle aged lady
Without a home,
And I am so tired
Of living alone.

So I thought I would advertise
And see what that would do,
And perhaps find a lone widower.
Now, how is it with you?

I am willing to work
And help all that I can,
And I've been thinking perhaps
I could get a good man.

Isn't there some lone widower
That will answer this ad?
We might suit each other,
Then we both would be glad.

Schools May Bar Children.

Common colds are contagious and Boards of Health in many cities are considering barring children with colds from school. Foley's Honey and Tar is an old and reliable family medicine and frees children from coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Parents will have sure trouble by giving before school opens. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

THE RIGHT WAY TO DRINK.

"Bite the bubble. Don't try to swallow the metal ball from which the water spurts." These are the high points in instructions issued by the federal health officers on the proper way to drink from a drinking fountain. Investigation shows a large per cent. of the persons using the fountain allowed their lips to touch some part of it. The slowly running water does not cleanse the part touched, thus making the spread of disease likely. "Every person using the bubbling fountain should bear in mind the object of this sanitary device is to prevent the interchange of mouth secretions. The other day an inspector of the United States public health service took a seat beside a bubbling fountain at a railway station and watched the way in which it was used. Forty-seven persons, of whom 11 were men, 22 women, and 14 children, used the bubbling fountain. In almost every case the lips were placed almost completely around the metal ball from which the water spurted, and one small boy seemed as though he were trying to swallow it."

Did the Old Man Good.

George W Clough, of Prentiss, Mississippi, is 77 years old and had trouble with his kidneys for many years. He writes that Foley Kidney Pills did him much good. He used many remedies, but this is the only one that ever helped him. No man, young or old, can afford to neglect symptoms of kidney trouble. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

YOU NEVER CAN TELL

BY BLACKFOOT

He was my dearest cham and I asked him would he come
And enjoy a nice time fishing at the lake.
We'd have a jolly day and drive dull care away
So he said he would for old time's sake.

His hands were much too clean to crank up my old machine,
The way he shrieked was wondrous to relate.
I furnished all the tackle, my wife put up the lunch
An I 'rena up to me to rustle for the bait.

He wouldn't row the boat and I simply was the goat,
The tangles on his reel would make you swear.
If I didn't pick 'em out he'd commence to cuss me out,
Till to make you offer up a little prayer.

The luncheon tasted queer, he found fault with the beer;
I liked a might to sink him on the bean.
The fish refused to bite, we nearly had a fight,
A meaner gink I'm sure I've never seen.

And so I say, no matter if your friend you've known for years,
You never can tell—until you take him fishing

Remarkable Success of These Talented Physicians in the Treatment of Chronic Diseases Offer Their Services Free of Charge

The United Doctors, licensed by the state of Michigan for the treatment of deformities and all nervous and chronic diseases of men, women and children, offer to all who call on this trip, consultation, examination, advice free, making no charge whatever, except the actual cost of treatment. All that is asked in return for these valuable services is that every person treated will state the result obtained to their friends and thus prove to the sick and afflicted in every city and locality, that at last treatments have been discovered that are reasonably sure and certain in their effect.

These doctors are among America's leading stomach and nerve specialists and are experts in the treatment of chronic diseases and so great and wonderful have been their results that in many cases it is hard to find the dividing line between skill and miracle.

Diseases of the stomach, intestines, liver, blood, skin, nerves, heart, spleen, kidneys, or bladder, rheumatism, sciatica, diabetes, bed-wetting, tape worm, leg ulcers, weak lungs and those afflicted with long-standing, deep seated, chronic diseases, that have baffled the skill of the family physicians, should not fail to call. Deafness often has been cured in sixty days.

According to their system no more operations for appendicitis, gall stones, tumors, goiter, piles, etc., as these diseases are treated without operation or hyperdermic injection.

They were among the first in America to earn the name of "Bloodless Surgeons," by doing away with the knife with blood and with all pain in the successful treatment of these dangerous diseases.

If you have kidney or bladder troubles bring a two ounce bottle of your urine for chemical analysis and microscopic examination.

No matter what your ailment may be, no matter what others may have told you, no matter what expensive you may have had with other physicians, it will be to your advantage to see them at once. Have it forever settled in your mind. If your case is incurable they will give you such advice as may relieve and stay the disease. Do not put off this duty you owe yourself or friends or relatives who are suffering because of your sickness, as a visit at this time may help you.

Worn-out and run-down men or women, no matter what your ailment, consult them. It costs you nothing.

Remember, this last free offer is for this visit only.
