LEGALS.

Friends

When the woman who was married to the late Mr. J. W. Smith, died, she left a large amount of property to be distributed to her friends. The following are the names of those who have received their share:

Postoffice Directory

Summer Schedule

Eastern Standard Time.
Office opens at 8 a. m.
Office closes at 8 p. m.
Western Mails leave office at 6:30 a. m., 12:55 p. m. and 4:55 p. m.
Eastern Mails leave office at 12:17 p. m., 4:35 p. m. and 7:40 p. m.

Geo. H. Mitchell, P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Downs have moved to Detroit.

Mrs. John Baldwin, of West Maple avenue, is quite ill.

Miss Irene Wood, of Tuscumbia, is the guest of Mrs. Bert Wood.

Ray Vanderford, of Romeo, is enjoying a visit with Harry Bolton.

Mrs. Emma Friend, of Gaylord, is a guest of Mrs. C. M. Carpenter.

The Grand Trunk R. Co. are repairing their depot in this village.

Mrs. M. G. Lasher has gone to Los Angeles, California, to visit the winter.

John H. Frey, of Brighton, was a recent guest of Mrs. and Mr. H. George Field.

Mrs. Seeley Peck, Sr., was a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. Chas. Frankin Port Huron.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruth Haskins, of Walnut Lake, were recent visitors of Birmingham friends.

Mrs. and Mrs. Samuel Arthur are entertaining their daughter, Miss Arthur, of Waukegan, Ill.

Mrs. N. Dunbar, of Franklin, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. William McKinnis.

What a glorious time European cities will have later on in boasting of what their population was in 1914.

Court Evergreen, No. 104, F. of A. meets Friday night, January 14. Initiation, installation and oyster supper. Don't forget the date.

All the Posts, the Misses Veronis, Julius and Xenia, are now snugly settled at St. Petersburg, Florida, for the winter. Birmingham, Mich., must have a seat in the front row at this southern resort.

Anthony Avery, of Royal Oak, who was recently arrested for not sending his daughter, 11 years old, to school, was arraigned before Justice Campbell Saturday, charged his plea of not guilty to guilty and was fined $25 and $15 costs, which he paid.

In reply to ex-President J. W. Perley's article of last week, Councilman Clabe says that the council's action in transferring $1,000 to the library fund from the amount collected by tax was "legal," but perhaps unusual. The $1,000.00 belonged to the public library.

George Anderson and Glenn H. Bingham, substitute carriers for R. F. D. routes Nos. 2 and 1, have just passed what is known as the most strenuous, energetic and difficult line of the whole year, the holiday season, when packages, cards and letters fill the air. Both gentlemen kept up the faithful record of their principals, Messrs. Skelton and Rousseau, which is glory enough for one Christmas season.

In this issue, the Detroit Free Press announces a subscription offer of special interest to rural patrons. A good daily newspaper has come to be a necessity in the rural home. The men who read the general news, markets and sporting news. The women enjoy the special women's pages as well as the other departments of the paper. The Free Press is a morning paper and is the only Detroit newspaper that can reach its rural patrons on the day of publication, therefore, it is able to give its readers the latest news first.

Rev. William Strick, Watson, who has been assisting Rev. William Maxon, of Christ Episcopal church, since last July, died at his home, 924 Third avenue, Detroit, Thursday, of cerebral meningitis. He built St. Matthias mission church in 1901, and had charge of the work there for two years. Called away from Detroit in 1905, he has spent the last 11 years conducting church work in Brooklyn, New York and in Dillon, Mont. Rev. Watson had reached the age of 42, and leaves a widow and three sons. Funeral services were held last Saturday at St. Paul's cathedral on Woodward avenue. The subject of the above sketch was pastor of Birmingham St. James' church and won, everybody else, a friend during his stay with us.

More rain and ice.
See Hallock Brothers' business card. Commerce, Birmingham and Detroit are still using fog time.
Nell Black is the new financial secretary for Court Evergreen, F. of A.
Mrs. Sara Sutton entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pierce, of Flint, one day last week.
Beginning Monday, January 27, all grocery stores will close at 5:30 eastern standard time.
One can generally figure out all that a man is worth by the amount of all money demanded in divorce proceedings.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bradner, of St. Johns, P. Q., were recent visitors at the home of I. N. Baker, Southfield avenue.
D. J. Wainor was not a registered voter returned to him from Ontario by calling at the Birmingham postoffice.
Anyone willing to corn cobs for fuel can get all, with free of charge, at our mill, corner of Forest and High streets, McClellan & Son, -Adv. 21.
A special meeting of Birmingham Chapter 230, O. E. S., is called for Wednesday evening, January 19. A good attendance is desired. All officers particularly are requested to be present.
The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church will meet at the church at 2:30 Thursday, January 20. A good program will be given. Supper will be served to all who will come from 5:30 to 9:00.
The following are books on civics in the public library: Practical Politics, three volumes; Political Science, three volumes; The Woman Citizen and the Home; The Laxer Citizenship; Woman Suffrage Civic Primer.
The family of C. A. Schwanbeck, of Birmingham Heights, are enjoying a season at Hotel Lanker-shug, Los Angeles, California. Here's hoping all their fondest hopes of a happy winter will be realized, and they will.

Build a bird house. A first price of a bird box of a year's subscription to a magazine and a second price "Bird Jingles," an illustrated book, for the best bird house. All under 15 may compete. Contest closes March 1, at the Library.

That big adventure of Volney Nixon, as related by him last week has cut quite a dash among our home sportsmen. Sam Mills and J. Allen Bigelow are green with envy and only wish the big "water-level-was" had hit Volney instead of the stern of the boat.

Elmer S. Brown, of Pontiac, aged 60, was buried in Greenwood cemetery last Saturday. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Adie Daines Brown, and three daughters, Mrs. Beattie Hagar and Mrs. Edna Porter, of Pontiac, and Miss Ednor Brown, of Keego Harbor.

We should be glad to know the fact that although from two or three to fifty men have been employed by the village ever since the past summer, yet not a man has been hurt in any way. Guess the superintendent is entitled to a little credit here.

Erastus H. Wooster, of Illinois, is among his many old friends on a visit for a few days. He notes our great change in wealth and advancement. And while our progress has been great, his own personal success financially and trade has been personally just as great. We are glad and here is our hand for still greater accomplishments.

Fin's weather so far. No one can find fault with our Michigan winter so far and right now January is just about half gone. For all the year "round Michigan weather cannot be beat. Year and year we get a spring, summer, fall and winter. Some years they may be slow in arriving, but take it year after year we get it and get it right, too.

An interesting puzzle problem with our readers now is to determine how to find out how much they owe the Eccentric. It is sure "amooosin'." You take this paper, look at the date after your name on it, or on the wrapper. Then take a pencil and pencil and subtract, then multiply by the year date. To the answer add another $ for luck and come and Cus.

The suit of the village vs. Mellen Wright Co. is a friendly suit to determine whether the village or the company own a strip of land on the railroad up to the Dennis homestead on what has been supposed to be Hamilton street extended. The company bought the Howard and Dennis property a few days ago, but the land for yard purposes if they own it. The village lays claim to the land and the suit will determine ownership.

Say, did you ever stop to think that life just about this time of the year was just one long "everything going up and nothing coming in" all the time? To the most of us Christmas came and with it went lots of money, then there was a "capital 'T'." Gee! But it took some money to pay the bill. And now here's the Eccentric holding out its paw for a remittance. Dear reader, do you know whether or not you are paid ahead or in arrears? You can tell just as well as we can. Just look at the name on the wrapper of this paper, or on the wrapper if it comes wrapped to you, and you will know at once, just how you are Birmingham Eccentric stand. You are $1.00 in arrears just as many years back as the date says. Long ago, figure it out and pay up for, by Heck, we do need the dough.

En-Convent Held Old Ticket.
Kansas City, Mo.—A man boarded a train in Kansas City, Mo., a few days ago for Gallatin, Mo., and handed the conductor a ticket that had been purchased in 1858. He explained that he had purchased the ticket for Gallatin, but that he had been arrested and taken to Leavenworth as a federal prisoner.

Just a suggestion.
In writing this book, I had one eye on the conductor and one eye on the passenger. "Pity you didn't have another eye to keep on the book. You might have improved it a lot."—Leavenworth Journal.

COUPLE FURNISH HOME, THEN ELOPE

Miss Driggs and Frederick W. De Martin Defeat Parental Opposition to Marriage.

Winsted, Conn.—Unknown to her parents Miss Edna B. Driggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Driggs, highly respected citizens of New Hartford, and Frederick W. De Martin, a drug clerk, also of New Hartford, furnished a cozy home in that village before they eloped by automobile to New Haven, where they were married by Rev. W. T. Hill, Methodist clergyman. They returned from their wedding trip they are comfortably settled in their own home, although both have been forbidden by the bride's parents.

Because of family objections to the union the couple had promised to defer their marriage one month. At the end of that time the objections were seemingly as strong as ever, so they concluded to furnish a home for themselves before running away and getting married. They took their land-lord into their confidence, also merchants of whom they bought household furnishings, and the villagers soon began to ask each other who was to occupy the newly furnished Thibault house on the bank of the Farmington river.

Early in the week Miss Driggs, who is twenty-three years old, went to Unionville to visit relatives. De Martin met her by appointment with an automobile at Burlington when she was ostensibly returning to her home in Haven, where he had made all plans for the marriage.

Following the ceremony they telephoned the news to their respective homes and to their parents. De Martin soon learned who was to occupy the newly furnished Thibault house.

Mr. De Martin is about twenty-eight years old.

Lafayette, Ind.—Local physicians are confronted with one of the most puzzling cases that has ever developed in Tippecanoe county. Alfred Noy, age twenty-two, two weeks ago seemingly lost all human sense, and instead developed the instinct of a mad dog.

He fell to his hands and knees and growled and barked like a dog, and did many other strange things.

After a battle the police succeeded in overpowering him and he is now in a strait-jacket at the county jail. Ten physicians have examined him, but none could say he was afflicted with hydrophobia. He has rational moments and talks.

NEEDLE BOTHERED HER SOME

Enters Palm of Woman's Hand and Works Way to Shoulder in Two Years.

Philadelphia.—After working its way along the arm of Mrs. A. Greenfield, a needle, which entered the palm of her hand two years ago, was extracted from her shoulder recently in the Children's Homeopathic hospital.

In August, 1913, Mrs. Greenfield was working her sewing machine, when the needle, which entered her hand, becoming embedded in the flesh.

At the time her doctor advised her to have the needle removed, but she preferred to keep it in her hand, and she did not feel any pain until a few days ago, when her shoulder became sore. She went to the hospital and the doctors found the needle several inches under her skin, close to the shoulder joint.

Burning Meat Proved Fatal.

Warren, O.—Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Pinkerton were found unconscious in their home recently, the cause being smoke of burning meat. The police broke into the room and carried out the unconscious couple. Mrs. Pinkerton died soon after being taken to a hospital and her husband was expected to live.
