

The Eccentric

BIRMINGHAM $1.00 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE WHITEHEAD & MITCHELL, Publishers

The regular meeting of the Banner League will be held at the home of Mrs. Mabel Clemensmith Saturday, January 8. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Grace McKinney will sell a lot of home goods and a quantity of notions at 11 o'clock p. m. Sale takes place at the house of Mrs. Hall on Bates street.

E. S. Ward & Co., plumbers, make a specialty of hurry-up repair jobs at low work of all kinds in their line. Copy for change of advertisement was last.

The B. P. Y. U. of the First Baptist church will give a shadow social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hamm in Troy, Friday evening, January 11. Leap year games will be the entertainment for the evening. Everybody come.

All aboard for the south! Everybody of prominence, means leisure and desire, have gone south, or are about to. Tuesday Mrs. Ellen F. Peabody and Mrs. Martha Blackless started for St. Petersburg, Fla., and will stay just as long as they like and be happy.

Pastor Wakefield and the Methodist church engage in revival meetings through the month of January. The public is cordially invited to attend. Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Markham, of Detroit, well known as leaders of gospel song, are to have charge of the music, beginning Sunday evening.

Dr. M. S. Rice, the popular pastor of the North Woodward Methodist church, Detroit, is to preach in the Methodist church here next Monday evening. Service at 7:30. Dr. Rice speaks to crowded houses in his own church and across the country continually. This is an opportunity to hear him and his message not to be missed.

Rev. Harvey G. Pearce, of Detroit, will preach in the Methodist meeting here next Thursday and Friday evenings. He has been so well received as a preacher here before as to insure a good attendance. It will be worth while to attend.

Mrs. Ellen Drew, aged 34 years, died Saturday at the Methodist home at Chelsea. The remains were brought here Monday and buried at Crooks cemetery, Troy. Deceased was born at Troy, Mich., and when about eight years old moved with her parents to Birmingham and most of her life spent here. She united with the Methodist church when very young and always remained a member of that church.

Rev. H. J. Simpson, who will officiate at St. James' church, is to preach in the regular weekly service of St. Paul's church, Lansing, and who is now the secretary of religious education for the diocese of Michigan. Mr. Simpson will also address the members of the Bible school and Mr. Keizer will be the band and promptly at 9:45, and to bring the Advent message boxes. This will be an important session of the Bible school.

The sixth annual mid-winter teachers' institute of Oakland county was held at Pontiac, Monday, January 10, at the high school auditorium. An excellent program, consisting of musical numbers, readings, addresses by prominent educators, etc., has been presented. The instructors will be Dr. Earl Barnes, of Philadelphia, and State Superintendent L. Keeler, of Lansing. Gov. Ferris will be in attendance and give an address in the afternoon on "Our Day and the Evening his subject will be 'The Teacher's Preparation.'"

About as pretty a home wedding as one ever sees was solemnized on New Year's day, when Miss Lila Evans, daughter of Mrs. Hattie Evans, and Mr. Floyd Leach were united in matrimony by Rev. Cassius Wakefield at the country home of the bride's mother. The bride was given away by her grandfather, J. D. Evans and attended by Miss Gladys Chappell as bridesmaid and Edwin Leach, at groomsmen. Marian Evans Deer played the wedding march and John Clark, cousin of the bride, acted as ring bearer. After January 15 the new home will be at Pontiac.

Confidential to those only. This was overheard by Town Treasurer Bell and Homer LaJole, his willing partner and running mate. David B. was in his chair at the State Savings bank making a deposit in the name of E. M. Mitchell to get his death money. He had a lot of money and was a gentleman, "that's all right, you have no nodding on me, I don't know you either." And those two old boys, Bell and LaJole, were still encircling over it. And you Mitchell is wondering what it is all about.

Obvious a Truth. Someone who is ideal husband is never bald. Since there is no such person, that must be true—Albany Journal.

Garrick Theatre. 33 Washington Square

Miss May Irwin continued her national popularity and justified the high compliments which have been paid her as a consequence of her letter to the justice Wilson at a psychological time, suggesting a national Department of Daughter, when she took her entire company to Washington and gave a special performance for the president and the National Press Club. She presented the new comedy, "33 Washington Square," in which she had a most successful run at the Park theatre, New York City, and which she is bringing to the Garrick Theatre, Detroit, next Monday evening for a week's engagement. It is a dramatization of the novel by Leroy Scott. The stage direction of the piece was done by William Goller, an associate of Miss Irwin's under the late Augustin Daly.

Contrary to her determination not to sing again Miss Irwin is now rendering several songs of the distinctly irwin type during the play, which are the "I'm Irving," Irving Berlin's latest; "Just Picture Me Down Home in Tennessee," "I've Been Floating Down the Old Green River" and "My Old Kentucky Home." The new comedy is considered the best she has ever had. The cast is the best selected that she has ever selected for her support, and includes Frances Gaunt, George Clark, Aldrich Bowker, Clara Brandon, Julia Ralph, Leonard Hilliard, Charlotte Carter, Joseph Woodburn, Max A. Meyer, Henry Hanson and William Sulby.
