We still maintain, however, that any man who tells about catching a "Big Elephant" party near Clarenceville under present conditions, is a liar.
Dr. Andrews, of Highland Park, was in town on business, Tuesday, and was the guest of H. George Field for luncheon at the Birmingham Club.
Raynold A. Whitehead has joined his family here for a short visit with his father, Whitehead. While the measles are giving the little girls a serious wrestling, no doubt, all will be well before starting for their northern summer home.
They had what they called a "White Elephant" party near Clarenceville the other day, and each lady was requested to bring something she could find no use for, but was too good to throw away. The festivities had scarcely begun when 100, not 10, arrived, and every last one had brought along her husband.—Redford Record.

Word has just reached here of the death of Charles Smith, of Sharon, Pennsylvania, and formerly of Southfield. He was 55 years of age and died July 19, of a paralytic stroke. He is survived by son, Elmer Smith, of Pittsburgh. The funeral was held at the United Presbyterian Church, which he had joined about six weeks before his death.
The ice cream that's put out by the Birmingham Creamery Company is not excelled by any in Detroit or Pontiac, and in many cases it is not equaled by them. An expert, from a celebrated house said to manufacture the best ice cream in Michigan, came here for a few days and put out energetic manager, George Wood, wise. He now makes ice cream second to none. Try it.

A petition is being circulated to have the County Road Commissioners to cause a cement pavement sixteen feet wide to be constructed, beginning at the Hunt Road on Woodward Avenue, thence west ten miles to the Ertz Mill property now owned by Elmer L. Smith and Walter Bemh; the north to intersect with Maple Avenue, two miles west of Birmingham, at the intersection of the Todd Road, making about four miles with the development of some very valuable property as the objective.
One Carlson, a laborer, who boards at Hotel Park, was a lucky individual who drew the bank book of the Pontiac State bank with a deposit of $2,500, at the Temple Theatre, last Monday night. His number was 31,162. Drawings for $2,500 each will be held every Monday and Friday night. Every one attending the theatre gets a number that may be winning one. Tonight (Friday) Pavlova in "The Dumb Girl of Portici," in nine reels. Tomorrow night, Saturday, Dustin Farnum in "The Call of the Cumberland." You may get the lucky number; try it.

There are ten thousand things we ought to be thankful for that we overlook in our daily thanksgivings. There's the fact that we are not occupying the literal capacity of controlling the weather to suit every body, especially our farmer friends. Princes, a Troy man was telling us yesterday that he had secured 45 acres of the finest hay ever sown, running two tons to the acre, and not a drop of rain on it. "But, good-gum it, my pasture land is all dry; up so, I'll soon have to fodder my cows. Never did see such good darned weather!"
Last Sunday, we took the advice of a friend and gave a "day on it had and has no equal, for the trip can be enjoyed by anyone and the price for the long, delightful ride is a mere nothing. Try the D. U. R. "Triangular Trolley Trip." It's almost a day of pleasure riding. Start from Detroit, go north to Pontiac, thence all the way along the line come in view; through these scenes of beauty, among the woods and waters of old Oakland and Wayne counties to Northville, thence Wayne to Detroit and home again. Try it. Good as the D. & C. trip—almost.

Come to think about it, is it really worth while to antagonize some of the best people of Detroit, by inflicting what would seem to be an extortionate fines and costs for speeding? The law was intended to restrict reckless driving, by besotted individuals, who endanger the lives of others and usually escape punishment as well as scoldings to themselves. Under present conditions, the better class of motorists will soon begin to pass the word that Birmingham and Royal Oak are good places to keep away from. We do not object to the authorities enforcing the law, but wouldn't it be better for the speed cops to use a little discretion?

Bulletin No. 5, just issued by the State Historical Commission, is a little volume of rare value, breathing the spirit and romance of Mackinac Island and the Mackinac country, the Indians, the furtraders, and the missionaries in the days when Michigan was young. It contains the newest map of Mackinac Island with descriptive notes of over 170 hundred places, natural and historical interest on the island. The volume is issued free for the pleasure and profit of the people, who may wish to purchase about their beautiful northern park, Mackinac Island. Anyone may obtain a copy without cost by addressing a post card to the Michigan Historical Commission, Lansing, Michigan.

Eight years in the office of Probate Judge gives one experience that can be had in way in the duties of the important office. Our readers have noted the nomination of Judge Rockwell as a candidate for reelection. The office is one where a man is found who is naturally fitted into the office he should be kept there and the Judge seems to be the man of the hour. Judge Rockwell has served his county in no serving his fourth year, and is a candidate for reelection. In our own county Judge Patterson served 14 years. All who have had dealing with the probate court give the Judge their hearty and warm approval. During the Judge's term of office, owing to new laws enacted the amount of property transactions in the probate court are said to exceed those in the circuit court and with this and the increase in population, the volume of business in the Oakland probate court ranks second among the counties of the State. The above facts assume added significance when it is known that no order or decree issued from Judge Rockwell's court has ever been reversed by the Supreme Court.
During the past four years as now, George C. Gillespie has been the competent assistant prosecuting attorney for Oakland county. Very now during the absence of Prosecutor Frank Wiley, first lieutenant of Co. A, Michigan National Guard, Mr. Gillespie seeks the republican nomination for his prosecution that if prosecuted Attorney for Oakland and will run the republican primary ballot at the coming election held next August.
A graduate of the high school at Royal Oak and his first work was as telegraph operator for the Michigan Central railroad. He graduated from the law department in 1910 and then became an Oakland county citizen locating at Pontiac. For four years he has successfully filled the office of Prosecuting Attorney's assistant. During this period he has assisted in the prosecution of a number of criminal cases. He is a Pythian, too, being a member of Pontiac lodge, No. 38.
