The Judge, through an innocent man's fear of scandal and loss of position, allows another woman to be called his wife. His wife meanwhile is seeking advancement for him.

A peculiar situation arises and she is given the opportunity of winning the Minister of Justice's life-long good will. For her husband she assumes the appearance only of wrong. The husband in unreasoning jealousy is upbraiding her for her unfaithfulness when the exposure comes regarding his unintentional double-dealing. The wife now has the white handle and wields it effectively. Poor man! he thinks that he is not in the wrong, yet both feel that the plea for forgiveness should come from the other. Who should be first? The question is probably best decided in the Photoplay, Madame La President, in which Anna Held, she of "naughty eyes" fame, will appear.

'THE NE'ER-DO-WELL'

"THE NE'ER-DO-WELL," by Rex Beach, the Swire Spectacular drama filmed by the Selig Polyscope Company, features Wheeler Oakman and Kathryn Williams, and an all-star cast.

The hero is Kirk Anthony, a college graduate and veteran foot-ball player and since graduation the coach of his university team. Kirk and other stars awake he is without money and without baggage.

During the voyage Kirk becomes acquainted with a woman—a Mrs. Stephen Cortland—whom he learns to admire very much. She is really a diplomatic agent of great influence. One day while Kirk is out hunting he awakes in a fore-love with her, and tries vainly to discover her identity.

The story of his making good, of his winning Chiquita despite the counter-plotting of Mrs. Cortland, of the clearing of his name, and of the final decisive intervention, in Panamanian affairs, of old Darwin K. Anthony is a story of engrossing, and varied by many richly-humorous episodes.

Chiquita is by far the most charming feminine character Rex Beach has drawn, and Kathryn Williams as Edith Cortland is an exceedingly captivating and fascinating type.

"The Ne'er-Do-Well" will be shown Thursday and Friday, August 3 and 4, at the Temple Theatre, Birmingham.
