WHEN THE TIME COMES TO SERVE

Birmingham Creamery

We hear that Louie Haack has sold his farm to speculators, likewise Will Ellenwood. There will have to come a break in this speculating land buying pretty soon now. Look out for it, for it is looking to flattery.—Codnor.

What happened to royal citizen of Oakland County, last Monday morning, in his travel from the Log Cabin upon in his travel from the Log quois upon a Woodward Avenue ear, was not just but unjust, when hy whimsical complaint off one of the passengers against him because he was relieving his ratarrhal troubles into his own-basket from his head, he was arrested by a catarthal trouble sinto his own: basket from hishead, he was arreated by a man who claimed to be a detective and roughly handled and the whole action evinced.big I and little you very tyranical and no country with Just laws could youch for it.—W. H. Codnor.
