ANNUAL MEETING

Birmingham Memorial Association Elects Officers and Makes Ar-rangements for Program.

Annual meeting of Birmingham morial Association was held in the Village Council Rooms, Tuesday evening May 2. Miss Mayme Daniels, Secre tary, read a very interesting accoun of the last year's proceedings.

The following officers were The following officers were elected for the ensuing year. John N, Heth, President; S. E. Green, Vice-president; Miss Mayme Daniels, Secretary; and Mrs. Sarah B. Carter, Treasurer. S. E. Green and H. A. Hamlin were appointed to arrange for flowers, and also to attend to the flag electration of the graves of all the old veterans in the cemetery.

graves of all the old veterans in the cemetery.

H. A. Hamlin reported that Rev. Wakefield, of M. E. Church, had expressed willingness to confer with the other ministers of the village and arrange for Memorial sergon.

The Association deplored the lack of cooperation and interest in remembering the old soldiers, by the citizes community of Birmingham, when all over this grand United States, this was a national affair.

The names of 75 soldiers are engraved on the monument in the Veterans' Lot in Birmingham cemetery, who gave their lives in the Civil War. Ought not to be forgotten.

Vaughan Glaser in "Jerry."

Detroit, as was avidenced by the elon-mous errowd a strending his opening per-formance of "Kick In." at the Garrick, and there is no keom for doubt how that his current engagement at the Garrick will be among, the most excessful in the history of stock engage-ments in Detroit. The personality of Mt. Glaser, the charm and winsome-ness of Miss Courtency, the good jour-ment in casting plays and they care in mounting them have rebounded to the credit of this excellent actor, and there mounting them have rebounded to the credit of this excellent actor, and there is little wonder that Mr. Glaser has been able to command attention where-been able to command attention wherever he has played.

The play selected by Mr. Glaser for his second week in this city is "Jerry."

It was Billie Burke's biggest success, and it will offer Miss Pay Courteney a great coportunity for the display of her telents as a comedience, as the burden of the comedy falls upon her. Jerry, the girl, decides offband, to marry her Abft Joan's lover, Montagu, herself, when the aunt's love waned after 20 years procrastinating, through no fault of his own. It comes out all right, of his own. It comes out all right.
Montagu and Jerry are married. The play closes with a scene in Arizons, the land of canyons and mountains and ro-mance. There they are at "Bird's Nest," living happily ever afterwards.

Who among us has not at some time suddenly awkened with a sense of of terror and anxiety, in a cold sweat, and with rapid heart beat? One may dream of suffocation, or think he is so being nailed down in a coffin Perhaps as one is falling asleep, be awakees each time with a momentary vivid dream of being pursue, of choking, and gream of being pursuen, of choking indi-being unable to breathe. What typo-duces the nightmare? The censor was weak; certain latend from thoughts and emotions have succeeded in es-caping its vigilance. Such dreams are continual disturbers of sleep and lead to insomnia, because the subconscidus repressed emotions are continually empressed emotions.
