THE PRICE OF CITY LOTS.

e following pertinent query and in-resting answer is reprinted from tent issue of the Minneapolis Jour-

a recent issue of the autherapora renal:
Query: To the Editor—There are now platting about 60 sections of land now platting about 60 sections of land in and crose to this city, making a fortal of 38,00 sers, or 203,00 lots at eix lots per sers. This does not incited Minnetonka, Hopkines; Robbinsidale, and other good and dake additions which have been platted these last five years by real estate promoters. And yet everybody is looking, for a better or higher price in real estate. Will ye seed if?

Answer: Every Americancity gross plant of the Temple Theatre, was well sittended by adding more suburban lots than it can clean up. There is always room on the outshirts. There should always be a large enough lot supply to give the purchasers a first and second choice. When this city has a million people, when this city has a million people, when this city has a million people, when the city has a million people, some of its 20, 400, lots will still be vecant. It may, at that time, have a million vecant lots. But its present platted territory, will be more valuable, the fact there is unoccupined platted land inside or outside a city's limits and the call estate market. That land was a land the state of the complete o
