GOVERNOR ELECT

ALBERT E. SLEEPER

Returns on governor show that Albert E. Sleeper, Republican candidate, carried the state by a slightly larger margin than did Mr. Hughes.

Final returns indicated it was an easy election for Lieutenant-governor Luren D. Dickinson, of Charlotte, to succeed himself.

Governor-elect Albert E. Sleeper, tired from his arduous campaign, and hardly smiling, so weary was he, arrived in Detroit Tuesday night after his election was absolutely assured.

Townsend has won his election as United States senator to succeed himself against Lawrence F. Price, of Lansing, and the whole Republican state ticket has gone into office by majorities ranging from 40,000 to 60,000.

Washtenaw County Returns. An Arbor—Washtenaw county was cleanly swept by the Republicans, leaving but two successful Democrats after the fray was over.
