Garrick Theatre.

"The Princess Pat."

The Princess Pat, John Curt's production of the Henry Blossom-Victor Herbert comic opera success, with practically the complete original cast, ensemble and orchestra, from long runs at the Cort Theatre, New York, and the Park St. Theatre, Boston, will return to the Garrick Theatre, Detroit, next Monday evening, for a week's engagement at that playhouse, with the usual matinees.

The story of "The Princess Pat" has to do with the flirtations of the Princess di Montaldi (nee Patricia O'Connor who is called Pat for short.) Her husband has of late failed in his demonstration of affection for her, and to bring him back to her, she has been well advised by her friend, Grace Holbrook, from a marriage to a man many years her senior, but his unstintingly wealthy, she starts a little affair with the old duffer that serves to accomplish her purpose but in the meantime, creates havoc with the happiness of her husband and the majority of other concerned in the play. There are 20 numbers and every one of them is distinctive of the brilliancy of the celebrated composer. The cast will include Venita, Richard, Oscar, Egan, Al, Sam, Alphonse, Clark, Louis, Craven, David, Quixote, Maxie, Haddy, Maude Gray, Ralph, Riggs and Katharine, Waltho.

With reference to preparedness, he changed and it was the proper thing to do.

With reference to Mexico, the president has acted wisely, justly, and courageously.

His attitude on the tariff shows equal wisdom and courage. A tariff commission will take the tariff out of politics.

They say that he has blundered, perhaps he has. But I don't usually blunder forward.

In the general controversy, the president acted with his usual courage and wisdom.

His speech is highly developed, but as to his foresight, we are not equally well informed.

This is no time for Republicanism or Democracy. Real Americans must get down to fundamental principles.

It is not now logical or sensible to change to an inexperienced and untried man.
