ward protecting the people from swindling stock-promotion. Will Payne, in The Saturday Evening Post, says:

Post, says:

"Not less than a hundred million dollars, in the opinion of those most competent to judge, is stolen from the people in this country every year by the sale of fake and wild-cat securities." The Postoffice Department puts the sum rather high-term of the swindling, concerns that prey upon importance and credulity to this staggering extent is 'duly incorporated and psassessa a charter under the great seal of some sovereign State, under the staggering stage in the properties of the properties of the sample success the properties of the p

'Though nearly every State and, Territory will incorporate any ser-of rank swindle that comes along, few States, so far as I know, seri-ously attempt to protect their citi-zens from these stock-peddling pi-rates.

"In every State, of course, 'a purchaser of fake stock may sue for the recovery of his money—which is about as satisfactory as the privilege of sping a pick-pocket for the recovery of your watch."

WE BELIEVE in the "Blue Sky Law, And we notice that since the enactment of this law, Take stock promotions have dwindled to a mir mum in this State. Legit rule-such investments as offered
