

News of the Week Cut Down for Busy Readers

U.S. Teutonic War News

It was learned at Washington that President Wilson has consented to immediate participation by the United States in the European war, and that the German submarines will aid in attacking German submarines in the so-called war zone about the British Isles.

Major Curley of Boston created a sensation by declaring in a speech at a patriotic mass meeting that an emissary of the German government offered him $100,000 to desert to Germany. He refused the offer.

A station was opened at Kenosha, Wis., for the recruiting of a new infantry regiment for the United States. W. J. Frazier, formerly a soldier of the U. S. navy. At the end of the day 150 men had signed the muster roll.

Official announcement was made at Washington of the establishment of a "war zone" about America. The zone extends for 100 miles from the coast. After sunset will be fired upon.

It was announced at La Paz, B. V. that the German minister and his staff have been handed their passports by the Bolivian government with a note declaring that diplomatic relations between Bolivia and Germany have been severed.

The war department at Washington directed to issue instructions to recruiting officers which will be filled up a call for 500,000 volunteers to fill out the regular army. All recruits enlisted since the declaration of war and those to be enlisted hereafter will be notified that they will be discharged at the close of the war, putting them in the status of wartime volunteers.

Vice Admiral Browning of the British navy and Rear Admiral Grasset of the French navy conferred at Washington with Secretary Daniels. The British admiral was chief of operations in the North Atlantic. The French admiral was for the conduct of the war. Both German commanders came to the United States on their flagships.

Warnings that German submarines are operating in the Pacific were sent out by wireless by order of Lieut. Com. E. C. Woods of the Twelfth naval district at San Francisco.

European War News

It was announced officially at Buenos Aires that the Argentine steamship Monte Protegido had been sunk by a submarine off the European coast. A rupture with Germany is imminent.

The sinking of two British hospital ships was announced at London. The hospital ship Salta was sunk by a submarine in the English channel. The other was the hospital ship Gloucester Castle, which was torpedoed without warning. All hands were saved, and the Gloucester Castle was saved.

The British tore through the German defenses in France on a 12-mile front from the north bank of the River Scarpe to the trench systems just south of Loos—in some places to a depth of five miles—and captured the villages of Angres, Glencly, Vieux-Petit-Vimy, Wilverval and ballouville in addition to much loot. Eleven thousand prisoners were captured during the week, says London.

Domestic

An accidental explosion of powder in the government arsenal at Powder Mill, Pa., killed Philip McNally and fatally injured Joseph Miller.

Loyalty Day in Minnesota on Thursday

Addressing the American Luncheon club at London Premier Lloyd George said the advent of the United States into the war had given the final status and seal to the character of the non-belligerent war. A struggle against military autocracy. Absolute peace of victory, the premier said, will be found in the war "ships" of peace coming now, the premier declared.

It became known at New York that Marshall Field III of Chicago, partner of the founder of Marshall Field & Co. and himself the possessor of one of the greatest fortunes in America, is to be enlisted as a private in the First Illinois cavalry.

One of two men detained by militiamen on the act of being a spy on the Oregon Short Line bridge near Portland, Ore., was seen to plunge off into the water when the guards opened fire. The guards threw the bomb into the river.

University of Mississippi

University of Mississippi officials have decided to take no military training.

Mr. Gen. George Goethals, builder of the Panama canal, was formally released by President Wilson in recognition of the building of 1,000 wooden ships for foreign commerce.

The principal rationale of the United States, meeting at Washington at the call of the council of national defense, appointed a board of three men to direct the operations of American railways throughout the

News of the Week Cut Down for Busy Readers

U.S. Teutonic War News

It was learned at Washington that President Wilson has consented to immediate participation by the United States in the European war, and that the German submarines will aid in attacking German submarines in the so-called war zone about the British Isles.

Major Curley of Boston created a sensation by declaring in a speech at a patriotic mass meeting that an emissary of the German government offered him $100,000 to desert to Germany. He refused the offer.

A station was opened at Kenosha, Wis., for the recruiting of a new infantry regiment for the United States. W. J. Frazier, formerly a soldier of the U. S. navy. At the end of the day 150 men had signed the muster roll.

Official announcement was made at Washington of the establishment of a "war zone" about America. The zone extends for 100 miles from the coast. After sunset will be fired upon.

It was announced at La Paz, B. V. that the German minister and his staff have been handed their passports by the Bolivian government with a note declaring that diplomatic relations between Bolivia and Germany have been severed.

The war department at Washington directed to issue instructions to recruiting officers which will be filled up a call for 500,000 volunteers to fill out the regular army. All recruits enlisted since the declaration of war and those to be enlisted hereafter will be notified that they will be discharged at the close of the war, putting them in the status of wartime volunteers.

Vice Admiral Browning of the British navy and Rear Admiral Grasset of the French navy conferred at Washington with Secretary Daniels. The British admiral was chief of operations in the North Atlantic. The French admiral was for the conduct of the war. Both German commanders came to the United States on their flagships.

Warnings that German submarines are operating in the Pacific were sent out by wireless by order of Lieut. Com. E. C. Woods of the Twelfth naval district at San Francisco.

European War News

It was announced officially at Buenos Aires that the Argentine steamship Monte Protegido had been sunk by a submarine off the European coast. A rupture with Germany is imminent.

The sinking of two British hospital ships was announced at London. The hospital ship Salta was sunk by a submarine in the English channel. The other was the hospital ship Gloucester Castle, which was torpedoed without warning. All hands were saved, and the Gloucester Castle was saved.

The British tore through the German defenses in France on a 12-mile front from the north bank of the River Scarpe to the trench systems just south of Loos—in some places to a depth of five miles—and captured the villages of Angres, Glencly, Vieux-Petit-Vimy, Wilverval and ballouville in addition to much loot. Eleven thousand prisoners were captured during the week, says London.

Domestic

An accidental explosion of powder in the government arsenal at Powder Mill, Pa., killed Philip McNally and fatally injured Joseph Miller.

Loyalty Day in Minnesota on Thursday

Addressing the American Luncheon club at London Premier Lloyd George said the advent of the United States into the war had given the final status and seal to the character of the non-belligerent war. A struggle against military autocracy. Absolute peace of victory, the premier said, will be found in the war "ships" of peace coming now, the premier declared.

It became known at New York that Marshall Field III of Chicago, partner of the founder of Marshall Field & Co. and himself the possessor of one of the greatest fortunes in America, is to be enlisted as a private in the First Illinois cavalry.

One of two men detained by militiamen on the act of being a spy on the Oregon Short Line bridge near Portland, Ore., was seen to plunge off into the water when the guards opened fire. The guards threw the bomb into the river.

University of Mississippi

University of Mississippi officials have decided to take no military training.

Mr. Gen. George Goethals, builder of the Panama canal, was formally released by President Wilson in recognition of the building of 1,000 wooden ships for foreign commerce.

The principal rationale of the United States, meeting at Washington at the call of the council of national defense, appointed a board of three men to direct the operations of American railways throughout the

News of the Week Cut Down for Busy Readers

U.S. Teutonic War News

It was learned at Washington that President Wilson has consented to immediate participation by the United States in the European war, and that the German submarines will aid in attacking German submarines in the so-called war zone about the British Isles.

Major Curley of Boston created a sensation by declaring in a speech at a patriotic mass meeting that an emissary of the German government offered him $100,000 to desert to Germany. He refused the offer.

A station was opened at Kenosha, Wis., for the recruiting of a new infantry regiment for the United States. W. J. Frazier, formerly a soldier of the U. S. navy. At the end of the day 150 men had signed the muster roll.

Official announcement was made at Washington of the establishment of a "war zone" about America. The zone extends for 100 miles from the coast. After sunset will be fired upon.

It was announced at La Paz, B. V. that the German minister and his staff have been handed their passports by the Bolivian government with a note declaring that diplomatic relations between Bolivia and Germany have been severed.

The war department at Washington directed to issue instructions to recruiting officers which will be filled up a call for 500,000 volunteers to fill out the regular army. All recruits enlisted since the declaration of war and those to be enlisted hereafter will be notified that they will be discharged at the close of the war, putting them in the status of wartime volunteers.

Vice Admiral Browning of the British navy and Rear Admiral Grasset of the French navy conferred at Washington with Secretary Daniels. The British admiral was chief of operations in the North Atlantic. The French admiral was for the conduct of the war. Both German commanders came to the United States on their flagships.

Warnings that German submarines are operating in the Pacific were sent out by wireless by order of Lieut. Com. E. C. Woods of the Twelfth naval district at San Francisco.

European War News

It was announced officially at Buenos Aires that the Argentine steamship Monte Protegido had been sunk by a submarine off the European coast. A rupture with Germany is imminent.

The sinking of two British hospital ships was announced at London. The hospital ship Salta was sunk by a submarine in the English channel. The other was the hospital ship Gloucester Castle, which was torpedoed without warning. All hands were saved, and the Gloucester Castle was saved.

The British tore through the German defenses in France on a 12-mile front from the north bank of the River Scarpe to the trench systems just south of Loos—in some places to a depth of five miles—and captured the villages of Angres, Glencly, Vieux-Petit-Vimy, Wilverval and ballouville in addition to much loot. Eleven thousand prisoners were captured during the week, says London.

Domestic

An accidental explosion of powder in the government arsenal at Powder Mill, Pa., killed Philip McNally and fatally injured Joseph Miller.

Loyalty Day in Minnesota on Thursday

Addressing the American Luncheon club at London Premier Lloyd George said the advent of the United States into the war had given the final status and seal to the character of the non-belligerent war. A struggle against military autocracy. Absolute peace of victory, the premier said, will be found in the war "ships" of peace coming now, the premier declared.

It became known at New York that Marshall Field III of Chicago, partner of the founder of Marshall Field & Co. and himself the possessor of one of the greatest fortunes in America, is to be enlisted as a private in the First Illinois cavalry.

One of two men detained by militiamen on the act of being a spy on the Oregon Short Line bridge near Portland, Ore., was seen to plunge off into the water when the guards opened fire. The guards threw the bomb into the river.

University of Mississippi

University of Mississippi officials have decided to take no military training.

Mr. Gen. George Goethals, builder of the Panama canal, was formally released by President Wilson in recognition of the building of 1,000 wooden ships for foreign commerce.

The principal rationale of the United States, meeting at Washington at the call of the council of national defense, appointed a board of three men to direct the operations of American railways throughout the

News of the Week Cut Down for Busy Readers

U.S. Teutonic War News

It was learned at Washington that President Wilson has consented to immediate participation by the United States in the European war, and that the German submarines will aid in attacking German submarines in the so-called war zone about the British Isles.

Major Curley of Boston created a sensation by declaring in a speech at a patriotic mass meeting that an emissary of the German government offered him $100,000 to desert to Germany. He refused the offer.

A station was opened at Kenosha, Wis., for the recruiting of a new infantry regiment for the United States. W. J. Frazier, formerly a soldier of the U. S. navy. At the end of the day 150 men had signed the muster roll.

Official announcement was made at Washington of the establishment of a "war zone" about America. The zone extends for 100 miles from the coast. After sunset will be fired upon.

It was announced at La Paz, B. V. that the German minister and his staff have been handed their passports by the Bolivian government with a note declaring that diplomatic relations between Bolivia and Germany have been severed.

The war department at Washington directed to issue instructions to recruiting officers which will be filled up a call for 500,000 volunteers to fill out the regular army. All recruits enlisted since the declaration of war and those to be enlisted hereafter will be notified that they will be discharged at the close of the war, putting them in the status of wartime volunteers.

Vice Admiral Browning of the British navy and Rear Admiral Grasset of the French navy conferred at Washington with Secretary Daniels. The British admiral was chief of operations in the North Atlantic. The French admiral was for the conduct of the war. Both German commanders came to the United States on their flagships.

Warnings that German submarines are operating in the Pacific were sent out by wireless by order of Lieut. Com. E. C. Woods of the Twelfth naval district at San Francisco.

European War News

It was announced officially at Buenos Aires that the Argentine steamship Monte Protegido had been sunk by a submarine off the European coast. A rupture with Germany is imminent.

The sinking of two British hospital ships was announced at London. The hospital ship Salta was sunk by a submarine in the English channel. The other was the hospital ship Gloucester Castle, which was torpedoed without warning. All hands were saved, and the Gloucester Castle was saved.

The British tore through the German defenses in France on a 12-mile front from the north bank of the River Scarpe to the trench systems just south of Loos—in some places to a depth of five miles—and captured the villages of Angres, Glencly, Vieux-Petit-Vimy, Wilverval and ballouville in addition to much loot. Eleven thousand prisoners were captured during the week, says London.

Domestic

An accidental explosion of powder in the government arsenal at Powder Mill, Pa., killed Philip McNally and fatally injured Joseph Miller.

Loyalty Day in Minnesota on Thursday

Addressing the American Luncheon club at London Premier Lloyd George said the advent of the United States into the war had given the final status and seal to the character of the non-belligerent war. A struggle against military autocracy. Absolute peace of victory, the premier said, will be found in the war "ships" of peace coming now, the premier declared.

It became known at New York that Marshall Field III of Chicago, partner of the founder of Marshall Field & Co. and himself the possessor of one of the greatest fortunes in America, is to be enlisted as a private in the First Illinois cavalry.

One of two men detained by militiamen on the act of being a spy on the Oregon Short Line bridge near Portland, Ore., was seen to plunge off into the water when the guards opened fire. The guards threw the bomb into the river.

University of Mississippi

University of Mississippi officials have decided to take no military training.

Mr. Gen. George Goethals, builder of the Panama canal, was formally released by President Wilson in recognition of the building of 1,000 wooden ships for foreign commerce.

The principal rationale of the United States, meeting at Washington at the call of the council of national defense, appointed a board of three men to direct the operations of American railways throughout the

News of the Week Cut Down for Busy Readers

U.S. Teutonic War News

It was learned at Washington that President Wilson has consented to immediate participation by the United States in the European war, and that the German submarines will aid in attacking German submarines in the so-called war zone about the British Isles.

Major Curley of Boston created a sensation by declaring in a speech at a patriotic mass meeting that an emissary of the German government offered him $100,000 to desert to Germany. He refused the offer.

A station was opened at Kenosha, Wis., for the recruiting of a new infantry regiment for the United States. W. J. Frazier, formerly a soldier of the U. S. navy. At the end of the day 150 men had signed the muster roll.

Official announcement was made at Washington of the establishment of a "war zone" about America. The zone extends for 100 miles from the coast. After sunset will be fired upon.

It was announced at La Paz, B. V. that the German minister and his staff have been handed their passports by the Bolivian government with a note declaring that diplomatic relations between Bolivia and Germany have been severed.

The war department at Washington directed to issue instructions to recruiting officers which will be filled up a call for 500,000 volunteers to fill out the regular army. All recruits enlisted since the declaration of war and those to be enlisted hereafter will be notified that they will be discharged at the close of the war, putting them in the status of wartime volunteers.

Vice Admiral Browning of the British navy and Rear Admiral Grasset of the French navy conferred at Washington with Secretary Daniels. The British admiral was chief of operations in the North Atlantic. The French admiral was for the conduct of the war. Both German commanders came to the United States on their flagships.

Warnings that German submarines are operating in the Pacific were sent out by wireless by order of Lieut. Com. E. C. Woods of the Twelfth naval district at San Francisco.

European War News

It was announced officially at Buenos Aires that the Argentine steamship Monte Protegido had been sunk by a submarine off the European coast. A rupture with Germany is imminent.

The sinking of two British hospital ships was announced at London. The hospital ship Salta was sunk by a submarine in the English channel. The other was the hospital ship Gloucester Castle, which was torpedoed without warning. All hands were saved, and the Gloucester Castle was saved.

The British tore through the German defenses in France on a 12-mile front from the north bank of the River Scarpe to the trench systems just south of Loos—in some places to a depth of five miles—and captured the villages of Angres, Glencly, Vieux-Petit-Vimy, Wilverval and ballouville in addition to much loot. Eleven thousand prisoners were captured during the week, says London.

Domestic

An accidental explosion of powder in the government arsenal at Powder Mill, Pa., killed Philip McNally and fatally injured Joseph Miller.

Loyalty Day in Minnesota on Thursday

Addressing the American Luncheon club at London Premier Lloyd George said the advent of the United States into the war had given the final status and seal to the character of the non-belligerent war. A struggle against military autocracy. Absolute peace of victory, the premier said, will be found in the war "ships" of peace coming now, the premier declared.

It became known at New York that Marshall Field III of Chicago, partner of the founder of Marshall Field & Co. and himself the possessor of one of the greatest fortunes in America, is to be enlisted as a private in the First Illinois cavalry.

One of two men detained by militiamen on the act of being a spy on the Oregon Short Line bridge near Portland, Ore., was seen to plunge off into the water when the guards opened fire. The guards threw the bomb into the river.

University of Mississippi

University of Mississippi officials have decided to take no military training.

Mr. Gen. George Goethals, builder of the Panama canal, was formally released by President Wilson in recognition of the building of 1,000 wooden ships for foreign commerce.

The principal rationale of the United States, meeting at Washington at the call of the council of national defense, appointed a board of three men to direct the operations of American railways throughout the

News of the Week Cut Down for Busy Readers

U.S. Teutonic War News

It was learned at Washington that President Wilson has consented to immediate participation by the United States in the European war, and that the German submarines will aid in attacking German submarines in the so-called war zone about the British Isles.

Major Curley of Boston created a sensation by declaring in a speech at a patriotic mass meeting that an emissary of the German government offered him $100,000 to desert to Germany. He refused the offer.

A station was opened at Kenosha, Wis., for the recruiting of a new infantry regiment for the United States. W. J. Frazier, formerly a soldier of the U. S. navy. At the end of the day 150 men had signed the muster roll.

Official announcement was made at Washington of the establishment of a "war zone" about America. The zone extends for 100 miles from the coast. After sunset will be fired upon.

It was announced at La Paz, B. V. that the German minister and his staff have been handed their passports by the Bolivian government with a note declaring that diplomatic relations between Bolivia and Germany have been severed.

The war department at Washington directed to issue instructions to recruiting officers which will be filled up a call for 500,000 volunteers to fill out the regular army. All recruits enlisted since the declaration of war and those to be enlisted hereafter will be notified that they will be discharged at the close of the war, putting them in the status of wartime volunteers.

Vice Admiral Browning of the British navy and Rear Admiral Grasset of the French navy conferred at Washington with Secretary Daniels. The British admiral was chief of operations in the North Atlantic. The French admiral was for the conduct of the war. Both German commanders came to the United States on their flagships.

Warnings that German submarines are operating in the Pacific were sent out by wireless by order of Lieut. Com. E. C. Woods of the Twelfth naval district at San Francisco.

European War News

It was announced officially at Buenos Aires that the Argentine steamship Monte Protegido had been sunk by a submarine off the European coast. A rupture with Germany is imminent.

The sinking of two British hospital ships was announced at London. The hospital ship Salta was sunk by a submarine in the English channel. The other was the hospital ship Gloucester Castle, which was torpedoed without warning. All hands were saved, and the Gloucester Castle was saved.

The British tore through the German defenses in France on a 12-mile front from the north bank of the River Scarpe to the trench systems just south of Loos—in some places to a depth of five miles—and captured the villages of Angres, Glencly, Vieux-Petit-Vimy, Wilverval and ballouville in addition to much loot. Eleven thousand prisoners were captured during the week, says London.

Domestic

An accidental explosion of powder in the government arsenal at Powder Mill, Pa., killed Philip McNally and fatally injured Joseph Miller.

Loyalty Day in Minnesota on Thursday

Addressing the American Luncheon club at London Premier Lloyd George said the advent of the United States into the war had given the final status and seal to the character of the non-belligerent war. A struggle against military autocracy. Absolute peace of victory, the premier said, will be found in the war "ships" of peace coming now, the premier declared.

It became known at New York that Marshall Field III of Chicago, partner of the founder of Marshall Field & Co. and himself the possessor of one of the greatest fortunes in America, is to be enlisted as a private in the First Illinois cavalry.

One of two men detained by militiamen on the act of being a spy on the Oregon Short Line bridge near Portland, Ore., was seen to plunge off into the water when the guards opened fire. The guards threw the bomb into the river.

University of Mississippi

University of Mississippi officials have decided to take no military training.

Mr. Gen. George Goethals, builder of the Panama canal, was formally released by President Wilson in recognition of the building of 1,000 wooden ships for foreign commerce.

The principal rationale of the United States, meeting at Washington at the call of the council of national defense, appointed a board of three men to direct the operations of American railways throughout the

News of the Week Cut Down for Busy Readers

U.S. Teutonic War News

It was learned at Washington that President Wilson has consented to immediate participation by the United States in the European war, and that the German submarines will aid in attacking German submarines in the so-called war zone about the British Isles.

Major Curley of Boston created a sensation by declaring in a speech at a patriotic mass meeting that an emissary of the German government offered him $100,000 to desert to Germany. He refused the offer.

A station was opened at Kenosha, Wis., for the recruiting of a new infantry regiment for the United States. W. J. Frazier, formerly a soldier of the U. S. navy. At the end of the day 150 men had signed the muster roll.

Official announcement was made at Washington of the establishment of a "war zone" about America. The zone extends for 100 miles from the coast. After sunset will be fired upon.

It was announced at La Paz, B. V. that the German minister and his staff have been handed their passports by the Bolivian government with a note declaring that diplomatic relations between Bolivia and Germany have been severed.

The war department at Washington directed to issue instructions to recruiting officers which will be filled up a call for 500,000 volunteers to fill out the regular army. All recruits enlisted since the declaration of war and those to be enlisted hereafter will be notified that they will be discharged at the close of the war, putting them in the status of wartime volunteers.

Vice Admiral Browning of the British navy and Rear Admiral Grasset of the French navy conferred at Washington with Secretary Daniels. The British admiral was chief of operations in the North Atlantic. The French admiral was for the conduct of the war. Both German commanders came to the United States on their flagships.

Warnings that German submarines are operating in the Pacific were sent out by wireless by order of Lieut. Com. E. C. Woods of the Twelfth naval district at San Francisco.

European War News

It was announced officially at Buenos Aires that the Argentine steamship Monte Protegido had been sunk by a submarine off the European coast. A rupture with Germany is imminent.

The sinking of two British hospital ships was announced at London. The hospital ship Salta was sunk by a submarine in the English channel. The other was the hospital ship Gloucester Castle, which was torpedoed without warning. All hands were saved, and the Gloucester Castle was saved.

The British tore through the German defenses in France on a 12-mile front from the north bank of the River Scarpe to the trench systems just south of Loos—in some places to a depth of five miles—and captured the villages of Angres, Glencly, Vieux-Petit-Vimy, Wilverval and ballouville in addition to much loot. Eleven thousand prisoners were captured during the week, says London.

Domestic

An accidental explosion of powder in the government arsenal at Powder Mill, Pa., killed Philip McNally and fatally injured Joseph Miller.

Loyalty Day in Minnesota on Thursday

Addressing the American Luncheon club at London Premier Lloyd George said the advent of the United States into the war had given the final status and seal to the character of the non-belligerent war. A struggle against military autocracy. Absolute peace of victory, the premier said, will be found in the war "ships" of peace coming now, the premier declared.

It became known at New York that Marshall Field III of Chicago, partner of the founder of Marshall Field & Co. and himself the possessor of one of the greatest fortunes in America, is to be enlisted as a private in the First Illinois cavalry.

One of two men detained by militiamen on the act of being a spy on the Oregon Short Line bridge near Portland, Ore., was seen to plunge off into the water when the guards opened fire. The guards threw the bomb into the river.

University of Mississippi

University of Mississippi officials have decided to take no military training.

Mr. Gen. George Goethals, builder of the Panama canal, was formally released by President Wilson in recognition of the building of 1,000 wooden ships for foreign commerce.

The principal rationale of the United States, meeting at Washington at the call of the council of national defense, appointed a board of three men to direct the operations of American railways throughout the

California Syrup of Figs

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver and bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs" that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste, and it thoroughly cleanses the tender bowels, liver and bowels without griping.

When cron, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at "California Syrup of Figs." It's a gentle, powerful laxative, and in a few hours all the congested, constipated, sour bile and indigestible food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well-satisfied child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, hiccups, indigestion, colic, remember, a good "bowel cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful will save the pain of tomorrow. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages, and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Adv.

Going Too Far

He had booked a room at a cheap boarding house near one of the railway stations.

"What's the matter?" asked the proprietor.

"Matter!" Well, I stayed in these railway lodgings before and I've had some rotten, sleepless nights. But it is the limit. I'm not going to be bothered any more by the noise of the railway. I've put up with 'em in the bedrooms, but when they crawl across the floor to see what room you're sleeping in—well, that's a bit too thick.

RELIABLE REMEDY RESTORES KIDNEYS

For many years doctors have warned with increasing insistence that kidneys maintained by Dr. Kessler's Swamp-Liver, great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, are the best.

It is a physician's prescription.

Swamp-Liver is a strengthening medicine. Dr. Kessler used it for years in his private practice. It helps the liver and bladder to do the work nature intended they should do.

Swamp-Liver has stood the test of years. It is sold by all druggists on its merit and the fact that it has cured thousands of cases of kidney trouble. Place of sale: Dr. Kessler & Co., Birmingham, N. Y., for all parts of the world. Write for free literature and mention this paper—Adv.

GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER

Used All Over the Civilized World for More Than 50 Years.

Stomach troubles seem to be almost universal the last few years; I mean indigestion in many forms, internal nervousness, caused by impure food fermentation, coming up of food and gas, heartburn, constipation, palpitation of the heart, habitual constipation, intestinal indigestion, caused by a torpid liver, and a general breakdown of the digestive system and debility.

Green's August Flower was introduced in this and foreign countries fifty years ago with wonderful success. It is a reliable remedy for all the above complaints. Sold by druggists everywhere at 25c. Trial bottles of 75c. Family Size, 50c. Manufacturer, Dr. G. Green, Woodbury, N. Y. U. S. A., Australia and Toronto, Canada—Adv.

Sweet Innocence.

My Youngblood—Our cook says those eggs you sent yesterday were quite odd.

"Wonder Very sorry, ma'am. They were the best we could get. You see, all the young chickens were killed off for the holiday trade, so the old hens were the only ones left to do the work." Mrs. Youngblood—