things and greater men. Great things are accomplished out there, greater things than the effete East, with its older civilization and its more abundant population can accomplish.

Among those states out yonder easily the one of chief magnitude, viewed at any angle, is California; a state that, shoul it ever become an independent country, could get along very nicely by taself, thank you. Indeed, it is an empire within Itself.

California has produced things of vastly more worth than go'd or raisins or grapsh or oranges. California has produced some remarkably great men, and either has, et them at work in their own state or sent them back East to do missionary work.

California produced a man by t'e amme of Adam' Clarke Bans; she set him at work doing remarkable things for therself, and then tent him to the rest of the United States.

This man, who is now Financial Secretary of the Anti-Saloen League of America, startel life as a tewspaper reporter and city editor. Then he was elected to a country office and was admirted to the Articlestelf.

Daring his incumbency, he studied law and was admirted to the har. He entered upon a successful practice, but soon felt the call to the ministry. He was made a Methodist Episcopal preacher and beld some of the most important pastorates on the Pacific coast. The Governor California recognized his worth and appointed him as a member of innovatin boards and cemmis-The Governor of California recognized his worth and appointed him as a mem-ber of important boards and commis-
