A Different Business

This Furniture and House-Furnishing business is operated differently from any other that I know of.

We have always marked our prices in plain figures, and that our one and only price.

We don't have to admit, as some dealers have, that we have some dealers have, that we have been errocks—that we did not be mark our price in plain figures; busest, for we are going to mark our prices in plain figures. But shows a price in plain figures are now in the price in plain figures. But shows a price in plain figures are now in the price in plain figures. But shows a price in plain figures.

ing to mark our prices in plain figures.

But does a promise to be honest by a dealer who has a imitted himself to have been crooked, cause you to think that his pain-price figures are honest—that his plain figures are his lowest?

One man told us that a "new" honest "plain figure" dealer dropped from his marked price of $50 to $50 on a Davenport before he would let him go. He bought of us, however, for even then dur plain figure marked price was lower than the reduced price.
