PLAN MILLION MEN TO FRANCE AT ONCE

FIRST MEN DRAWN, GUARD AND REGULARS WILL MAKE UP FORCE.

ach District Board Will Summon Twice As Many Men for Physical Examination As Quota Calls.

Washington—An American army of 1,000,000 men for service abroad at once instead of the 500,000 contemplated for the fast draft is foreishadowed by the governments request for an acceptance committee.

The first 1,000,000 men are to be made up of the first draft army of 500,000, the National Guard and, the regulars. It is improbable that the first draft will be increased, but the regulars are not one of the first draft will be increased, but the first draft will be increased, but divide the control of the first draft will be increased, but divides or other drafts without the necessity of going to congress again for money. Impressed with the apparent unreliability of the Russian offensive, the president and his military adviers afe expeditionary force of more than 1,000,000 men.

Secondary to these general modifications it developed that a comprehensive rearrangement of our armed being worked out.

With the master lists of Friday's being worked out.

Ottawa—The conscription bill passed the house of commons by a major ty of 54. It in ow goes to the senate, where its speedy enactment is assured by the presence of a substantial majority supporting the government. The majority use the third residence of a substantial majority as proporting the government. The majority use the third residence of the conscription was adopted on, accord reading.

There was no practical change in the lineup. English speaking inconservative members voted solidly for the bill and 250 of the English speaking interest supporters of Sir Willriad Laurier brokes away and voted for the government. Will frid's followers voted with him against conscription.

Before the vote was taken, an appeal for the measure was made by J. G. Turriff, a liberal member, whose only son was killed in France. He opposed submission of conscription to general selection because it vould be defeated by the votes of slackers who had failed to respond to the call for volunteers.

had failed to respond to the call for volunteers.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier and that from the bottom of his heart he wished the resources of Canada would allow the sending of not merely a half million, but a million men, but it was a ques-tion of how many men could be taken throm the nation without imperiling the industrial and agricultural industries and the very life of the country.
