Mr. McCarthy, who for some years past has served the public in the tonsorial line of trade and Mr. Briggs, formerly with Taylor Bros., have opened an up-to-date barber shop in the Birmingham Inn, where they will be pleased to serve their former friends and customers.

Three weeks ago, Lloyd Peck, son of Seeley Peck, enlisted with the 63rd Battalion of Highlanders and is now in training at London, Ontario, preparatory to going across the water to fight the central powers. Some more for a Birmingham young man and our best wishes go along with him that he may win glory and renown and come back unharmed.

The Temple Theatre has changed hands again, and this time a real theatre man is in control. Manager B. S. Fay will keep the theatre-going public informed of the exclusive up-to-date features to be shown in Birmingham by weekly announcements in the Eccentric. We believe that Mr. Fay is the right man in charge, and will meet with deserved success.

George W. Conklin, a D. U. R. conductor, made a complaint, Friday night, against Edward Schultz, of Pontiac, on a charge of being in an offensive state of intoxication that night, on a car. He was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Mack Hunt and had his hearing Saturday morning before Justice A. W. Campbell, pleaded guilty, and was fined $15 and $8.15 costs. He paid.

John Dunn, age 38 years, of Royal Oak, had the side of his left foot badly crushed when it was run over by a D. U. R. car, Saturday night, at 11:30 o'clock at Hendries Corners, at Royal Oak. Mr. Dunn was lying at the side of the tracks when the accident happened. He was brought to Birmingham, where he was attended by Dr. N. T. Shaw, and later taken to the Pontiac hospital. Mr. Dunn was formerly of this place.

Joseph Rastum, of 162 LaBelle Avenue, Highland Park, had his right leg broken, a d Joseph Alle, his right arm, Thursday night, March 22, when the steering wheel on the automobile being driven by Rastum, broke, throwing them out of the machine on the D. U. R. tracks, about three miles south of Birmingham. They were brought to Birmingham to Dr. N. T. Shaw's office and later Rastum was taken in Farmer's ambulance to Providence Hospital, in Detroit.

From different parts of the state, reports have been received by the State Forestry Department that there is something wrong with the maples. This may be serious and it may not be. The injury may be caused by one of the several kinds of insects. Do not take any chances. Notify, at once, Prof. L. R. Taft, East Lansing, Michigan, and your letter will receive prompt attention. It requires years of time to produce a good tree, but it can be ruined by insects in as many weeks. Do not neglect it.

Deputy Sheriffs Hunt and Stephenson arrested seven men, Saturday and Sunday nights, each in an offensive state of intoxication on a D. U. R. car. Each had his hearing, Monday morning, in Justice Campbell's court, and pleaded guilty. Frank Hall, of Pontiac, was let off on suspended sentence; William Schram and Levi Van Every, of Pontiac, in default of paying a $25 fine and $8.40 costs, were committed to the county jail for 45 days; Charles F. Grove, of Detroit, paid a fine of $5 and $8.40 costs; Joseph Richway, of Harrisville, Roy and Fred Patten, of Walled Lake, in default of paying a fine of $15 and $8.15 costs, were committed to the county jail for 30 days.

The Birmingham Fire Department is a live bunch. They have begun making arrangements for a celebration of July 4. The Committee on Arrangements is already at work raising the necessary funds for prizes and other amusements and they plan on having a sane celebration. Among the features will be a firemen's tournament, in which every fire department in Oakland County and as many from outsideas can be induced, will take part. While it is a little early, as yet, to publish the whole program, the people of our beautiful village will do well to make arrangements to stay at home, and invite all your out-of-town friends to spend the day in Birmingham. Hurrah for the Fourth!

Both banks will be closed on Monday, April 2, election day.

Mrs. Cassius Crawford is ill at her home on Brown Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bingle have returned to their home at Belleville.

Mrs. Ella Watkins Hill, of New York State, was the guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Randall, recently. When she was a girl, she was Ella Watkins and taught school here under Prof. W. D. Clizbe, some years ago.

All who attend the Easter services at the Methodist Church this year, who desire to do so, are invited to bring one or more fresh eggs. They will be sh ped to the Free-bed department of Wesley (Methodist) Hospital, in Chicago.

A. J. Turner, who has been in the employ of C. P. S. Price for more than a year, has purchased the Sanitary Dairy and will maintain it at Mr. Price's high grade efficiency. W. D. Lykie, of Troy, will furnish the milk for this route.

Miss Lula Jackson is home again with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Jackson, of Southfield. She was driven from her Cuba position as teacher by the rebellion and uprising of the Cubans, and her experience was dangerous and exciting.

Charles Shain and mother, Mrs. Fannie Shain, left Riverside, California, Thursday, with the body of Mrs. Jennie Tibbils, who is a sister of Mrs. Shain, and who djed at that place. Mrs. Tibbils will be buried at Pontiac. She was formerly of this place.

Attention R. A. M. 93—Regular convocation, Monday evening, April 2. Much work is coming on as the spring opens. The officers are all working in great satisfaction. Come and take a part before the goblins get you. E. L. Bailey, H. P., J. A. Bigelow, Sec'y.

The body of David J. Rainey, age 62 years, who was killed, March 10, when he fell from a cliff at Stewart, British Columbia, reached here Monday night. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at his late home on West Maple Avenue. Burial took place in Roseland Park Cemetery.

Dr. George B. Clarke paid a flying visit to his old graduating school and town, Kirksville, Missouri, returning Tuesday of this week. Business at St. Louis was also attended. With his increasing business at all his offices, the energetic D. O. has about all he can handle; but he does it, and does it well.

Fifty years ago, the 6th day of March, Cark Beach and Miss Maddron were married. Last 6th of March, they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary amid a merry throng of children grandchildren, relatives, and friends. Twenty-nine children and grandchildren were present. Quite a flock of Beaches, hey?

Are you "doing your bit?" Every Monday evening, Tuesday morning, Thursday and Saturday afternoons, the Birmingham Club rooms, as headquarters of the local branch of the American Red Cross Association, will be open to all who wish to co-operate in this work. The work consists of making non-perishable supplies for the base hospital now being established in Detroit. This is not a building but an equipment of supplies sufficient for 500 beds. The following local chairmen of committees have been appointed: Red Cross Committee, Mrs. W. C. Harris; Finance, Mrs. Frank A. Gordon; Work, Mrs. N. T. Shaw; Cutting, Mrs. J. A. Bigelow; Publicity, Miss Sarah E. St. On Saturday, March 31, near the D. U. R. Waiting Room, Mrs. F. A. Gordon and her aides will sell American flags for this very worthy cause.

Auto as Showcase.

A California dyer took off the rear seat of his automobile and put in its place a glass showcase, in which his work is displayed as he delivers it to his customers.

IF YOUR HORSE COULD TALK
He would tell you that the shoes we put on for him are the best he ever wore. Horseshoeing with us is a science. We shoe a horse as he should be shod. It isn't only a matter of sticking on four shoes. They must be puton in such a way as not to interfere with his gait. Many a fine animal has been ruined through poor shoeing.
