WORKING IN THE SHADE

By ELIZABETH VAN BENTHUSEN

It is a good thing, if this can be done. Dig into the ground thoroughly slaked lime and wood ashes.

Officials See Hope of Averting Break

Washington—Austria-Hungary, anxious to show American "optimism" regarding its peace and disarmament warfare, promises everything and nothing.

Study of this version reveals the following features:

Austria-Hungary endeavors in long-winded phrases of diplomacy to make appear as mild as possible her full intention to accept the terms of the so-called U-S-Bat Treaty.

It was stated officially that Austria's reply left the door open to further negotiations, delaying, at least temporarily, the break which has been treated as inevitable since the severance of relations between the United States and Germany.
