CONTRABAND

By RANDALL PARRISH

THE outbreak of the Great War and the attempt by a big specu lator to organize a copper pool supplies the motif for this splendid ctory. The scene is laid almost entirely on the high seas, first on the private yacht of the Copper King, then on a big freighter, filled with contraband of war, attempting to run the blockade. With the sinking of this vessel the action passes to a gruesome death ship, laden with treasure and horrors.

From the time Robert Hollis encounters a strange, mysterious young woman on board the "Esmeralda until the two leave the death ship together, there is a succession of thrilling situations and perilous adventures related as only Parrish can tell them. Watch for and read
