Elephant's Love For Finery.

Strange as it may seem, the elephant is passionately fond of finery and delights to see himself decked out with gorgeous trappings. The native princes of India are very particular in choosing their state elephants and will give fabulous sums for an animal that exactly meets the somewhat fanciful standards they have erected. For these they have made cloths of silk or velvet embroidered with gold that two men are hardly able to lift them. — Pearson's Weekly.

Reprimand For Tennyson.

On one occasion when Tennyson was on a visit in Ireland with Aubrey de Vere a sudden moon overtook him, and he sought out his hostess and began to invent a story in which she, the lady, put him to rest, saying: "How would the world get on if others went about growling at its amusements in a voice as deep as a lion's? I request that you will go up to bed and go to sleep, and come down and ask my daughter Sophia to dance."
