High Lights.
A conservative young man has wound up his life before it was unrolled. We expect our men to be conservative, but when a nation's young men are so its future bell is already rung. This world would be a great, groaning machine if God had not sent home to make it whole, run smooth and sparkling by which to light a torch that should guide a thousand weary feet in right ways. A life always a truth for a humble life, else the handle would cut itself which sought to drive it home upon another. The worst loss, therefore, are those whose minds are false, but whose hearts are true. The way to avoid evil is not by maiming our passions, but by expelling them to yield their vigor to our activities. Thus they become, as in the ancient fable, the harpooned steeds which bear the chariot of the vain—Henry Ward Beecher.

Storage House Peculiar to Main.
The Anasota type of storage house, with concrete or masonry basement walls and wooden superstructure, seems to be distinctively a product of Maine, and so far as has been observed is not found to any extent outside of the state. It is an extensively constructed house and is almost always located on a hillside or knoll in order that advantage may be taken of a ground-level entrance. That such houses have proved satisfactory to the potato grower in Maine is evident from the fact that practically no other style of potato storage house is in use in that state.

Finger Marks.

Fingerprinting has a bad habit of getting fingered. And it is a good thing to know that an oil will remove all the signs of them if the furniture is of the varnished variety. But kerosene is better for furniture which is piled or waxed.

From Governor Sleeper's Proclamation of October 4, 1917.

"Michigan's sons are going forth to defend the nation. Michigan must stand as one man behind them and provide a full share of whatever financial support may be required. Nothing must be left undone, no matter what the cost, to win this war and win it speedily. Let us not do halfheartedly the part that may be ours in the conflict, but so lend ourselves and whatever we may have to the cause of humanity that the clenched hand of an outraged civilization may strike not only heavily but lightly. *****

"I further designate the fifteenth day of October as Patriotic Day. On this day, or the evening thereof, let a meeting be held in every school house in Michigan, with a program suitable to the occasion, the children participating, and let careful consideration be given to the progress of the work and its further promotion."
