

This Sunflower Would Have Been Larger If All the Buds Had Been Cut O As Soon as They Appeared.

WORK AMONG THE FLOWERS TAKE CARE OF YOUR PLANTS

By LIMA R. ROSE.

roses and cinceraria seculings grown in figures. Do not allow them to become pot-bound until they are ready to losser.

If the milmonette is a good time to losser.

If the milmonette is a good time to losser.

Sow three or four seeds in thumbout, and putting them in a box of sand. Sow only the seeds of the large bots, and pluge them in a box of sand. Sow only the seeds of the large flowering kind and thin to one plant in a pot. Repied when the pot is full in pot. Repied when the pot is full in pot. Repied when the pot is full in pot. Begin and the plant is established in form the pot is the pot in the plant is established in form the pot is the pot in the plant is established in the pot is the plant in the plant is established in the pot is the pot in the plant is established in the pot is the pot in the plant is established in the pot is the pot in the plant is established by the plant is the plant in the plant is established by the plant is the plant in the plant is established by the plant is the plant in the plant is established by the plant is the plant in the plant is established by the plant is the pla crimson,

The golden banded Japanes one of the handsomest and just when we need it most summertime.

KEEPING BOOKS FOR COWS PAYS PROFITS

Record of Michigan Testing Associations Show Value of Work.

MOVEMENT GROWS IN STATE

Members, Owning 5,642 Cows, A Enrolled—Weed Out the Cows Which Prove Unprofit-able.

By J. A. WALDRON, Extension Agent in Dairying, Michi-gan Agricultural College. East Lansing, Mich.—A year age here were just 250 farmers, owning, 5,529 cows, enrolled as members of co-portative cowtesting associations in

HOGGING CORN SAVES LABOR

HOGGING CORN SAVES LABOR

Many Michigan Farmers Find, I Profitable Vay to Harvest the Crop.

By PROF, GEGING A. BROWN,
Department of Animal Husbandry,
Michigan Apricultural College.
East Lanslie, Mich.—The coll of city Industry poor so rapidly combining to drain hie country districts of their farm binds, may put many a Michigan faree hard up against the labor problems this fall. This situation, for fariners whose men have been taken, viii largely resolve itself into one of finding a way to get in the corn crop with an little justide help as possible.

House of the common security of the corn crop with an little justide help as possible.

The common security of the corn of common security of the cor

this CLEAN BEANS BEST FOR SEED

ither new or astonaling, for searcely my other result could have been ex-sected when it is remembered what many growers planted last apring-langies submitted to the college curry in the year showed the presence of stick in a high percentage of seed, ven where it had been hand-picked. But these inspections this full bage iso jurnished evidence of the value of circular selecting clean seed in o is carefully e field. The cro, rown this year from the re inreg, the pick per and the beans are ripen than is the case with th

DIPPING TO EXTERMINATE SHEEP TICK

FLIES CAUSE LOSS TO STOCK FARMERS

Insects Which Gather Around Stables and Yards Are Cause of Irritation and Worry.

By C. H. DELIBOY. Department of Veterinary Medicino Oklahoms A. and M. College, Sulliwaten, Files cause bases to, live stock farri-rism various ways, making it difficult to restimate the damage done. Those which gather around stables and yards ahere minimis are confined any the

BEES NEED SOME ATTENTION

BIG CROPS IN WESTERN CANADA

Production of Pork, Beef, be about 30 bush with the price of borhood of $2 per say that there wi

tion three hundred thousand two hun-lars was received Western head du months of this y were sold at an a per ewt., and had of 200 pounds che

Better a clean plate now than an

PAINS SHARP AND STABBING

Woman Thought She W Die. Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

University of Notre Dame

NOTRE DAME. INDIANA
Officis Complete Course in Agricultura full courses also in Letters, Journalism Library Science, Chemistry, Pharmacy, Modcine, Architecture, Commerce and Law

PATENTS Watson E. Colleges and Parket Sp. C. Advice and books Sp.