BOY SCOUTS ENLIST WAR SAVING ARMY

SECY' MCADOO APPEALS TO THEM TO GO TO EVERY HOUSEHOLD IN LAND. RED POST-CARD CAMPAIGN

President Wilson to Thank Leading Scout Salesmen for Distinguished Service.

Washington—The $50,000 Boy Scouts of America have been asked by the Secretary of the Treasury to enlist an army of war savers throughout the country. The scouts have instructions from their national headquarters to ring doorbells in the land, deliver a short talk on the necessity of saving, and take orders for Government war-saving securities.

President Wilson will write a personal letter of thanks to the scout in each State who has the highest record of sales during the year, and the wives of the Cabinet members have offered to give a victory flag in each State to the troop standing at the top at the end of the year.

Your spendid work in the Liberty Loan campaign has proved that the Government can count on you and your organization. Knowing that you are always ready to serve your country, and realizing how widely war-savings stamps may be sold through your efforts, take pleasure in presenting you another opportunity.

Can Sleep in Peace. Here's a boon for the tired commutator and the man who discovered it figures that he is going to be hailed as the benefactor of the nation for the 5:15 every night, makes a New York correspondent. This commutator, who lives in the suburbs, has a habit of going to sleep on his way home one night he woke up about 15 miles beyond his destination with only a jingle in his jeans. The station was about as far away from his home as if he had been at the North pole. He has now lit on a novel scheme to prevent him from going beyond his station. He has bought a watch with an alarm attachment. He now bolts over with his head in his hand with the alarm set for two minutes before he reaches his station, and he says it works like a charm—a watch charm.

CARD OF THANKS. Last week in writing my card of thanks to the people who contributed to my benefit, I was under the impression the theater was to be paid for its use. My card failed to mention to receive any pay at all. Not even for the electricity used. Think this the largest donation of anyone and thank Mr. Fay for his liberal contribution. I wish to say that I am in a position to know Mr. Fay and his dealings and he is trying to give the best show obtainable and does his best in giving you as good a show as he can see anywhere. It would only be a debt paid to patronize the Temple Theater and make it the best little theater anywhere. CHAS. M. JONES.

Don't Let It Linger. A cough that "hangs on" wears down the sufferer, leaving him unable to ward off sickness. My cough, hoarseness and cured. Sold everywhere—15c."

Stars Not Visible From Well. This star is visible in the sky from the bottom of a well, but it is not generally believed since the days of Aristotle, but there is not the slightest foundation for this idea. From Honolulu, who writes: "I had a good deal of time in mines placed and questioned miners in various parts of the world, found no evidence in support of the idea. It has been thoroughly exploded. It has been many other 'explored' ideas, it dispels just as vigorously as ever—4c. Popular Science Monthly.

Sweet Odors Always Popular. From the very earliest ages man has loved sweet odors. In the Bible we read of the burning of incense on the altar and the very word perfume (under which head we may include all delicate unguents or scents) comes from the Latin perfum, smoke or vapor. The early Egyptians knew the use of perfume, and adapted it to the separation of the odorous principle from fragrant plants, but the most ancient odors were drawn from natural gums, such as camphor, myrr, and cinnamon.

Hands and Fingers. Nearly everything of money value in this world gets its worth from the human touch, according to Industrial Management magazine. The hidden hand of humanity turns whatever it fingers into its representative value in gold. Diamonds gain their high value not only from rarity but because of the earth's soil have to be handled to find one little stone. Gold itself gets its worth not merely from scarcity but from the immense work in accumulating one ounce.

How He Foretold Weather. At Whitby, when the moon is surrounded by a halo of watery clouds, the seamen say there will be a change of weather, for the moon dogs are about. An amusing story is told about a fisherman in Torquay. A gale having taken place during the night, he said he had foreseen it, as he had noticed a star ahead of the moon towing her and another astern chasing her. "I knowed 'twas coming then, safe enough," he told 'em all.—London Mail.
