Washington Fought Against Official Neglect *

(officials held responsible for suffering at Valley Forge) that it is a much easier and less distressing thing to draw up remonstrances in a comfortable room by a good fireside than to occupy a cold, bleak hill and sleep under frost and snow without clothes or blankets. However, though they seem to have little feeling for the naked and distressed soldiers. I feel superabundantly for them, and from my soul pity these miseries, which it is neither I pity these miseries, which it is neither in my power to relieve nor prevent. — General Washington
