

WASHINGTON MESSAGE PRESIDENT EXPRESSING SINCERE FRIENDSHIP FOR MEXICO.

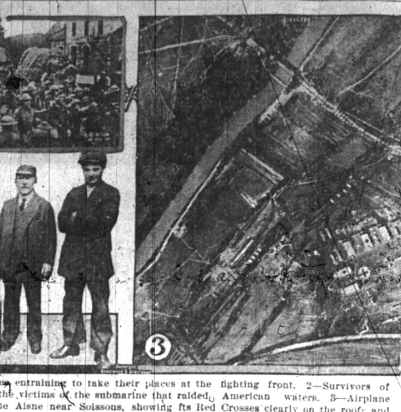

WESTERN WORLD'S BIG BROTHER

Peace Can Only Come By Trust. It You Once Get A Situation of Trust, You Have Peace.

Haynes—President Wilson in his address to the Congress yesterday, having been with the publication in the United States, until the text should have had time to reach the press of Mexico.

President Wilson said, in part:

"Some time ago I proposed a sort of Pan-American agreement. I had perceived that one of the difficulties of our past relationships with Mexico was this: The famous Monroe doctrine was adopted without your consent and without the consent of any of the Central American or South American states. We said: 'We were going to be your brother, whether you wanted to be or not.'"

German Submarine Raid in Our Waters Fails to Terrorize American Nation.

WAR SPIRIT IS STIMULATED

Splendid Work of Yankee Troops in Halting Hun Drive at the Marne—Enemy's Losses are Appalling

By EDWARD W. PICKARD.

The appearance of the submarine or submarines—their number is not known—off the New Jersey coast last night, and the existence of U-boat bases on the Mexican coast, this is officially discredited by our navy department, though there is little doubt that the fact is true. It is possible that someone else is trying to instill fear in the minds of the people. However, there was evidence that the raiding submarines had come direct from Germany, and as they had been some time, they probably will soon return.

ment is contemplating the extending of assistance to Russia in the way of food supplies, and distributing them to European Russia.

In equally parlous state is Turkey, the poorest people are subsisting on chestnuts and pumpkin seeds. In some districts the troops have to go to the hills to get their food. Only the officers are well fed. These food conditions, the steady advance of the British in Palestine and Mesopotamia and the growing strength of the Arab forces, are evidence of the approaching break up of the Turkish empire. It has not gotten yet for all its efforts except certain districts ceded by Russia under compulsion, and the possession of these districts is being contested by the British and the Italians.

The Italians kept on hitting hard at the Austro-Hungarians, and they heard indistinctly of the missing of thirty enemy divisions at three points on the front for a re-organization of the troops toward the plains. The Italian army is now in better condition than ever before since the help of the American, British, and French has been called off to stop the expected offensive.

The supreme war conference of the allies at Versailles expressed its complete confidence in the ultimate defeat of the central powers and declared that the allies would not see a single one of the five great powers of the world to the despoilment of Berlin. The premier of Great Britain, Lloyd George, declared that the creation of a united independent Polish state with free access to the sea was one of the conditions of a just peace, and that the allies would not see a single one of the five great powers of the world to the despoilment of Berlin.

The German claims to define advances during the week and their losses were growing so appalling that we must be prepared to meet them. It is necessary to speak of them not only to inform the people to consider the magnitude of the operations and the scope of the war, but also to show that the end of the week there were signs that Von Hindenburg was preparing a removal of the drive on another part of the front, possibly in the Ardennes sector, but the allied military authorities expressed satisfaction with the progress of the drive in their ability to meet any new attack.

The German papers was almost a unit last week in its calls for a peace offensive, but the papers and the fact that they represent were as far apart as the poles. The German papers would state that as her peace aims. The radical press still insists on the armistice and an indemnity program, while the organs of the party in their ability to meet any new attack.
