

PHINKS UP AND OPERATION

Canton, Ohio.—I suffered from a female trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided before I could get well. My mother, who is a nurse, advised me to try before submitting to an operation. I tried her medicine, and I am glad to say I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound a trial and it will do as much for her as any operation. Mrs. MARY BOND, 1421 1/2 St. N. E., Canton, Ohio.

Sometimes there are serious conditions where a hospital operation is the only alternative, but of so many women have been cured by this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that doctors have said that an operation was necessary—every woman should try it to avoid an operation should give it a fair trial before submitting to such a serious trial.

If complications exist, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice. The result of many years experience is at your service.

Rely On Cuticura To Clear Pimples

Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c. HADN'T TAKEN HIM FOR THAT. Nothing In Nuptial Contract That Would Have Kept Him From United Herself to Brass Band.

The trifling causes that some people set forth in seeking a divorce come up for discussion at a social gathering, when the following anecdote was related by William A. Smith of Michigan.

Some time since a woman entered the office of a lawyer, and on being asked the nature of her business by the legal light of her lawyer, she gave a narrative that she wished to see for a separation from her husband.

"That is something, of course," answered the lawyer, "but I didn't take her for a brass band." Philip E. Johnson, Detroit, Michigan.

Lives 200 Years!

For more than 200 years, Haarlem, the famous national remedy of Holland, has been recognized as the best medicine from all parts of kidney and bladder diseases. It is the only medicine that has been used for centuries. It is the only medicine that has been used for centuries.

Dr. Ellison Browning said in an address before the anti-gambling league of Duluth: "It is impossible to speak a good word for gambling except in jest."

"One of my addresses was interrupted on a certain evening by a chap who yelled: 'Don't knock gambles no hard, doc. I know three men in this town who have retired, thanks to gambles.'"

"Who are their addresses?" I demanded skeptically. "Corner of State street and Wash. Ingoton avenue," yelled the chap.

"The whole audience then burst out laughing, for that was the address of the local almshouse."

Bitter Disappointment. "Now, don't feel downcast," said the lawyer, whose client had just been convicted of embezzlement.

MAN SLEEPS WHILE HIS BEDDING BURNS

Newton, N. J.—He slumbered deeply and loudly in his room at the Waldmere hotel. After a little a cigarette butt that he had dropped ignited the mattress. He continued to sleep while little flames ran along its edge and the room filled with smoke.

The man in the next room began to cough and traced the fire to the door of the slumberer. He entered to find the mattress afire, with its occupant peacefully asleep. He called the attention of the hotel manager.

"The intruder picked up the pitcher and emptied its contents on the modern Rip Van Winkle, who stirred, muttered drowsily, and slept again. The fire was out, to all appearances, and the rescuer left, pursued by the snoring of the rescued."

Five hours later the man in the next room appended to the management.

"He's afire again," he complained, "and I can't wake him up." It took two strong men to rouse him sufficiently for him to slide off the burning mattress.

HUG BY PRETTY GIRL ENDS IN LOSS OF $130

San Francisco.—A long hug by a pretty girl cost Charles Snuiters, of this city, $130, and the fact that the young woman was beautiful does not console him in the least.

Mary's Little Lamb

"Evidently," thought Jack, "Mary was the shy member of the party—but she might have shown the way if she only blushed like that."

"Well, of course, we realize our dreadful mistake now," said Jack, looking straight into her eyes.

"I'm glad to see you're so sorry," said Madeline, "but you mustn't let me hear of it again."

"I'll be there," said Scott, "I'll be there."
