WASHING WITHOUT WORK

ELECTRIC WASHING MACHINE

Just put the clothes, the hot water and the soap into an

Switch on the current, and then go about your other household affairs. They wash themselves, and they do a perfect job of it—no sloop, no muss, no fuss, no worry—and no work.

At what expense? Well, about half the price you pay for a "movie" ticket. You can't afford to miss this advantage. Come in and let us show them to you.

DODGE BROTHERS

CONVERTIBLE CAR

The admiration inspired by Dodge Brothers Convertible Sedan at first glance is not disappointed upon closer scrutiny.

The details are all good—the seating arrangement a model of convenience and comfort, the upholstery soft and substantial.

It will pay you to visit us and examine this car.

The gasoline consumption is unusually low.
The tire mileage is unusually high.

TROY

Mother's day services at the Troy church, May 12.

The W. F. M. society met Thursday with Miss R. Niles.

Children's day will be observed in the Troy church June 5.

The standard bearers meet Saturday p. m. with Mrs. Rose Schoch.

Everybody is canning dandelions these days—'Old Fack'—mostly.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Bellis were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lesley Phelps.

Mrs. Helen Briggs and children, of Jackson, were at the Chas. Button home over the weekend.

Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. Schoch attended the dedicatory service Sunday at Royal Oak of the new M. E. church.

The views of Scotland were thrown on the screen at the Troy church Monday night, much to the pleasure of all who attended.

The Red Cross workers are asked to meet with Miss R. Niles for a few days till the room they expect to have ready is put in order for the work. A Red Cross branch unit will be formed in Troy, and Clavson in the near future. Look up a good location in each village.

Troy township did herself proud, taking the war census of the women. It was a pleasant surprise to the chairman of the registration to find comparatively few women who were disloyal to their country and would not register. Great praise is extended to the captains and registrars.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surface of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and restoring nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CLEGGY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all Druggists, etc.

SINGING THE WAY TO WAR SAVING

Two Detroiters Create the Official W. S. S. Song in Their "Dress Up Your Dollars in Khaki."

One of the greatest aids in bringing home to the people the necessity for marshalling their small change in the coffers of the government for a successful termination of the war, according to the national war savings committee, is the new war song hit, "Dress Up Your Dollars in Khaki and Help Win Democracy's Fight."

Both words and music were written by Detroiters, the lyrics by Lister R. Alwood, and the music by "Dicky" Whitting of Jerome H. Remick & Co., creator of numerous other popular melodies.

The song as originally written was intended to be used only in the state campaign. Copies of it were submitted to other state directors, however, with the result that, from Maine to Texas orders for thousands of copies of the song have been sent in to the local committees.

It is planned to have it sung by school children, singing societies and in playhouses and movie theaters throughout the country. In Texas alone, the song will be sung by school children in 39,000 schools.

The song has been written to a snappy march time music and the lyrics eloquently express the sentiment which is prompting millions of people to buy the thrift stamps. The lyrics follow:

From lowland and highland,
In your land and my land,
Our warriors are marching away
To join their commanders
In France and in Flanders,
To keep the world with this fray,
But Uncle Sam's calling the stay-at-home, too.

For the pathway to freedom is rocky,
So prove you're a soldier by saving—yes yes—
And dress up your dollars in khaki.

CHORUS:
Oh, dress up your dollars in khaki a speck,
And help win Democracy's fight,
With your nickels and dimes and your quarters, as well,
You can set the whole question aright
For the leader in France's defend,
But the spender is worst of them all,
Let a War Saving Stamp send your money to camp,
And answer the President's call!

Speaking of loyalty, your money talks, but it shouts through a megaphone when turned into War Savings Stamps.

SCRAPS OF HUMOR

UNSYMPATHETIC.

REGGY—Dear sir, my love for your daughter has driven me half crazy.

FATHER—But it has, eh? Well, what completed the job?

REGGY—Had a cold yet?

FATHER—No, but I was always full of it. And cranked, too, and cranky. But every time I try to smile I have to use my hands.

REGGY—Bright Prospects.

FATHER—An optimistic young man asked me the other day for permission to marry my daughter.

REGGY—When I told him she spent ten thousand dollars a year on clothes alone, he said he figured that her trousseau would last until he could work up to a salary of twelve or fifteen thousand dollars a year.

BRUTE!

HUBBY—I saw something at your milliner's that looked awfully fetching.

WIFE—How nice! Did you buy it for me?

HUBBY—Nope. I couldn't. It was the delivery boy.

WIFE—Mostly Talk.

A barking dog, so we are told, is seldom known to bite.

Like a man who talks a lot will run before he'll fight.

Not Spontaneous.

"You very seldom see the 'clinging vine' type of woman nowadays," said the old-fashioned man, sadly.

"They occasionally figure in breach of promise suits," said the worldly person.

"Indeed?"

"But I'm forced to conclude that clinging with them is an acquired art."

What He Is Thankful For.

"Uncle! You seem to have some trouble getting over the ground."

"It ain't complainin' boss, so long as I kin keep from gettin' under it!"—Judge.

Soap Boxes.

"That soap box orator has strange whiskers."

"It is about his mouthpiece instead of that contain shaving soap."

Light on the Scandal.

"Did you hear that young Smith was seen the other day hugging and kissing another man's wife?"

"Dear me, no! Whose wife was she?"

"His father's."

Speaking of Religion.

Hilda—Well, there's one thing I can say. I never made a cloak of my religion.

Bertha—No, dear, there's not enough of it for that. Might be enough, perhaps, to make a pocket handkerchief.

Plankville Society.

"Do you want a bit of society news?"

"I guess."

"You know the lady you started was coming to visit me last week?"

"Yes, madam."

"She's gone."

Letters of Introduction.

"Does a letter of introduction mean anything to you?" asked the caller.

"More than it used to," replied Senator Sordburn. "Stationery and typists have become so scarce that a man is not so likely to waste time on letters of introduction in a spirit of mere idleness."

That Doesn't Follow.

"This man says he never takes his politics to bed with him."

"Then I suppose he has no use for political sheets."
