Geo. H. MITCHELL, P. M.

Miss Sarah Sly was a Detroit visitor Wednesday.
The Kaiser has secured a peace with out victory.
"Us Kings must stick together!"
And they did.
Mrs. E. F. Peabody was a Detroit caller this week.

Mrs. Susan Parks was in Detroit the first of the week.
Don't forget the Chicken Pie Supper tonight in Johnson-Shaw Hall.
Miss Mary Satterlee has been a recent guest of Pontiac friends.

The Birmingham Temple Theatre opened Thursday evening after a flu vacation.
Clarence Smith, of Camp Custer visited his mother, Mrs. Carrie Smith, over Sunday.

T. R. made one bad guess when he told the late Kaiser that Germany had an army that could whip the world.
Mrs. Will Fyfe entertained guests from Harbor Beach, also Miss Philetta Phillips, of Detroit, over the week end.

Miss Anna Parks, of Pierce Street entertained last Saturday, in honor of Mrs. Fannie Shain, who left for Los Angeles, Calif., on Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mason were Ann Arbor visitors over Sunday, Mrs. Mason returning home, and her husband remaining for medical treatment.

Wonder why the HEAD man of Birmingham waited for an invitation to remove his hat during the singing of a patriotic number "Peace Day?" Miss Florence Wendorph entertained the Ninth Grade class last week at her home, Roseland Park Cemetery. Games and refreshments and a jolly good time.

J. P. Gleason and wife, of Clearwater, Fla., and J. A. Gleason, wife and daughter, of J. A. Flint, spent Sunday with Mr and Mrs. Yaxley, East Maple Ave.

Mrs. C. H. Shaffer and Mrs. W. S.
Badger surprised Mrs. F. S. Buck one day by running in from Detroit for an impromptu visit. It was a merry one all right.

Mrs. Jennie Hamilton, of Tacoma, Wash., and Mrs. Harry Bradner and daughter, Janet, of New York City, have been recent guests of Mrs. Sarah Shaw, 417 Oakland Avenue.

Wiley E. Groves has been elected to Tau Beta Pi National Honor Society of Engineers. Eight other University of Michigan students were accorded the same honor. Membership is awarded for scholarship and personality.

One of the brightest old ladies of this vicinity is Mrs. Margaret Harrison, who has reached her ninety-third year and is well and hearty, thank you, and able to do the dishes and attend to some of the family feeding. She lives with her sons and daughter on the Town Line Road, and was a recent welcome visitor at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Groves, on Ann Street.

C. R. Cummings and family have recently moved here from Detroit, and are located at 211 Oakland Ave., in the McCellan house. Mr. Cummings represents the United Autographic Register Co., of Chicago, and has a wide business acquaintance in Birmingham.

The Woman's Guild of St. James Church will hold a sale at McBride's new hardware store today, the 16th at 2 p. m. Native Baskets from Jamaica, Braided and woven rag rugs, aprons, fancy articles, fruit, vegetables and baked goods will be offered at reasonable prices.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, of the M. E. Ch. ch. will hold their regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening, November 28, at 7 p. m., and members will answer roll call with an item of missionary interest concerning China. "Oriental Women in the Home," will be the subject of the program.

As we were about closing our forms last week we learned of and briefly mentioned the auto accident on Woodward Avenue, about a mile below town, in which Peter Kerr and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Jane Withrow were injured. It seems that they, with Mrs. Kerr, were driving north on Woodward Avenue, when the auto skidded as they passed a large truck and then upset directly on southbound track in the path of a rapidly approaching car. A number of men witnessed the accident and ran and endeavored to get the motorman to stop the car. One of the men ran and opened the door of the auto and helped Mrs. Kerr out. Before the others could be aided the trolley crashed into the auto with such force that it practically reduced it to a pile of scrap.
Mrs. Withrow had one leg broken above the ankle and one bone of the other ankle broken. Mr. Kerr received a compound fracture of the left leg above the ankle, three toes of the left foot were almost severed, and his scalp was cut severely. They are under the care of Dr. Shaw and doing as well as could be expected.

Birmingham saw all the celebrations of all the cities in the U. S. on Thursday last week. This was a full dress rehearsal of the act to be pulled off when the real end of the war came.
It came very soon, the following Monday, which was the very first day of this week. Our little city began at 5 o'clock a. m. and kept it up all day and most of the night. Pontiac Band and soldiers, with a delegation came and helped out. We had more flags out, more people engaged in making noises and celebrating than any other city in the state, barring none. We buried and burned more Kaisers, burned more Bill Hobanzellers and did the job of rejoicing and celebrating the exit of the Beast of Berlin better and more thorough than any other city in the Union.
We shed more tears of joy, yelled louder, and were happier over the event than any other population in any city in the United States. All stores, shops and offices closed tighter than any other's in any city. Our bells rang louder and longer than any others; rifles, guns and revolvers shot off oftener, louder and longer than all the others.
In fact, we can't be beaten when it comes to celebrating the downfall of antorency in general and the Kaiser's in particular.

Garrick Theatre.

"Abe" Potash and "Mawpus" Per-lmutter, the central characters of "Business Before Pleasure," the famous laugh festival coming to the Garrick Theatre next Sunday, November 17th, for a week's engagement, are said to have been presented in more countries and before more people than any other American stage creations. They have made theatre-goers laugh in Great Britain and Ireland, Canada, Australia, Russia, Scandinavia, Holland, Belgium and Paris.
"Business Before Pleasure is the third of the famous series of Potash and Perlmutter comedies, the other two being "Potash and Perlmutter," and "Potash and Perlmutter in Society."
