The United States Government is resolved to do its best to restore every wounded American soldier to health, strength, and self supporting activity.

Regular Annual Convocation of Birmingham Chapter No. 93 R. A. M., on Monday Evening, December 2. Election of Officers, Payment of Dues, and any business which may lawfully come. J. A. Bigelow, Secretary.

Every Literary Board leader who holds his head is keeping up a part of this great work of restoring to health, strength and usefulness the men who have suffered for their country. Until he is discharged from the hospital, all the medical and surgical treatment necessary to restore him to health is under the jurisdiction of the military or naval authorities, according to the branch of the service he is in. The vocational training, the re-education and rehabilitation necessary to restore him to self-supporting activity, is under the jurisdiction of the Federal Board for Vocational Education.

Our Village contains more fishermen to the square mile than any other locality in Michigan. Some are active, and a large majority do their fishing around the fireplace or the stove. Active or honorary, they should all be interested in the fisherman's own magazine, the American Angler, published at No. 1400 Broadway, N. Y. with that veteran angler, Fred E. Pond ("Will Wildwood") at the editorial end, and first-class contributions from the ablest writers on a subject of which we never tire. Send "em a dollar for a six months' trial trip. If you are not satisfied we will try and borrow a dollar and refund your money.

Robert Reynolds, who has been a continual source of anxiety to his widowed mother, was found guilty of robbing the cash register in O'Neal's harness shop one evening last week. The boy had deceived his mother, who thought he had accepted and was holding the position that she had secured for him. Pay day was due and the boy sought this means of recompensing his mother, and the latter, of course, supposed the $21.00 represented the boy's wages. Juvenile Officer Jackson has the boy in charge, and it is quite likely that Reynolds will be of the State Institutions, where it is to be hoped his development will be of a moral and intellectual nature.

Miss Mary Lee of Farmington, visited her aunt, Mrs. Sarah Fuller, last Saturday.

If Prince Willie's Papa should fly with the F13, what do you suppose the little fellow would do?

Mr. and Mrs. John Perce, who live on the Franklin road, Bloomfield Township, buried their infant daughter Monday.

Be sure and attend the Chicken Pie Supper in the Frat Presbyterian Church parlors next Wednesday evening. Tickets 50 cents.

Next Sunday evening, at 7:30, Memorial Services will be held in St. James Episcopal Church, for Private Charles Edwards, who recently died while serving his country.

Was there a crowd at the McBride Hardware opening last Saturday? We assuredly there was, and everyone carried away a useful souvenir of the up-to-date supply.

It is "Captain" Corson now, Harold Corson having been commisioned to that honorable position by the United States Army recently. The young man is the son of Mrs. Helen H. Corson.

The Woman's Literary Club had a Bible Day program on Tuesday and contributed $12.00 to the Oakland County Patriotic Fund. The next meeting will be with Mrs. A. E. Rosso, 623 Pierce Street.

Mrs. Florence Masters, who died at her home in Southfield, aged 58 years, on the 23rd inst., was survived by a husband, two sons and one daughter. The remains were interred in Greenwood Cemetery, Birmingham.

Richard Pickett, who had been ill with Brights disease for some time, passed away Monday morning. Funeral services were held from his late home on Maple Avenue East, Wednesday afternoon, and the remains were taken to Grand Rapids for burial. He was 73 years of age.

The members of Birmingham Lodge No. 547, I. O. O. F., are requested to meet at the Lodge Hall Sunday evening, December 1, at seven (7) o'clock, for the purpose of attending the funeral services of Brother Charles Edwards, to be held in the Episcopal church at 7:30 p. m. on that day.

Mrs. Tillie Thurlby Randall is in New York, and in another column tells you what she can do for the returning soldier boys when they land in New York. She is hostess part of the time there of the Michigan Bureau of Military Relief, and will make anybody from Michigan realize they have found a friend, if they will call. Read her letter. It's fine.

We are told that Lucy Teller, who was one of the two persons charged with the larceny of an opiate from Cih's Drug Store some weeks ago, signed a petition before Probate Judge Stockwell for admission to the Pontiac State Hospital, where she will undergo treatment to overcome the dope habit. Her companion, George Teller, is said to be nearly cured by medical aid.

Don't forget that next Wednesday and Thursday—December 4th and 5th—is the time to attend the Bazaar, Chicken Pie Supper, Japanese Tea and other forms of entertainment provided by the Ladies of the First Presbyterian Church, in the beautiful new edifice on Woodward Avenue. The fair, or sale of Christmas articles opens Wednesday at 3 p. m. and continues through the next day. On Wednesday evening an appetizing chicken pie supper will be served, followed by a Japanese Tea on Thursday. These ladies believe in "preparedness" so the event will unquestionably be a success from every standpoint. Everybody go and select a Christmas gift and pick a bone.

OBITUARY.

Harrison A. Hamlin was born in Medina Township, Mich., September 25, 1840, and departed this life, November 16th, 1918, living to the ripe old age of 78 years, 1 month and 22 days.

His early years were passed on the farm, where he formed those habits of industry which exerted such a powerful influence over him throughout all his after life.

At the age of 21 he enlisted in Company—4th Regiment Volunteer Infantry, and served three years in the Civil War, establishing a worthy and honorable record, taking part in 47 battles and skirmishes, being wonderfully preserved through them all, without a serious wound.

In 1868 he was married to Charlotte Smith, whose death occurred on Christmas Day, 1917.

At the age of 40 he was converted, and has ever since been a firm believer in the Lord Jesus Christ.

In 1884 he, with his family, moved to Birmingham, where he has since resided. He is survived by his two children, Mrs. Edith Bookham, and Ray Hamlin.

A good man has gone.

Domestic Diplomacy.

Brownson—"To keep peace in the family a man must occasionally give in to his wife." Wilkie—"That's right. There are times when I let my wife make me do exactly as I please."

MOVABLE SCHOOLS.

In many places in Oakland County farmers are already discussing the type of farmers' meeting that is available to the various communities of the County. A short time ago we mentioned the Farmers' Institute as an established feature in this State, and now placed in the hands of the local Farm Bureau of each County to provide a better service than ever before. This is true, because the service has been narrowed down until a few vital subjects, are discussed at length. A modification of the Institute to meet the needs of many neighborhoods is the farm school. This is the continuation of the institute.

Copied From Nature.

Ideas for the colors in the best Scotch tweeds are found in the bed of the river Gentry, in the Falls of Killcranckie. Granite, porphyry and Jasper are found there in rich reds, greys and greens, beautifully mottled and mixed in finely contrasted colors. The first order of tweeds sent to London in bulk was six pieces of black and white check made in Peebles.

Brown Boots Are Patriotic Boots for Autumnal Wear

And we doubt if anyone can find more beautiful Footwear. Brown kid and brown calf are not only smart but they have the official sanction of the United States Government, which, you know, has restricted the number of colors that may be used in Shoes.

We placed our order early with "John Kelly" for Brown Shoes, with the result that our stock has not been seriously affected by the shortage of good leather.

Two shades of brown, in calf and kid, for your selection, and every detail of style that is so expressive of "John Kelly" Shoes always.

Shoes for motoring—for street wear—for every occasion.
