

DANDRUFF MAKES HAIR FALL OUT

A small bottle of "Danderine" keeps hair thick, strong, beautiful. Girls! Try this! Doubles beauty of your hair in a few moments.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, thick and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and seerzy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; in an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine for a few cents at any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that all you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine—Adv.

PROVEN SWAMP-ROOT AIDS WEAK KIDNEYS

The symptoms of kidney and bladder troubles are often very distressing and leave the system in a wretched condition. The kidneys seem to suffer most, as almost every victim complains of lame back and urinary troubles which should not be neglected, as these danger signals often lead to more dangerous kidney troubles. Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root, which so many people say, soon heals and strengthens the kidneys, as a splendid kidney, liver and bladder medicine, and, being an herbal compound, has a gentle healing effect on the kidneys, which is almost immediately noticed in most cases by those who use it.

A trial will convince anyone who may be in need of it. Better get a bottle from your nearest drug store, and start treatment at once.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmor & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When you receive it be sure and mention this paper—Adv.

PERSHING MAILED BY PARIS CROWDS

Cheering Mob Surrounds American Commander in Chief.

CAR IS HALTED IN STREET

Leader of Yanks Showered With Flags and Flowers as He Acknowledges Unexpected Tribute.

Paris.—During an impromptu trip through the Place de la Concorde Gen. J. Pershing led to the platitudes that perhaps never before have been equaled in the history of the city. It was also perhaps one of the most dangerous half hours he ever experienced. Parisians crowded about his car and fully half a million comprised the great mob that crammed the Place de la Concorde and was still flowing in from all the boulevards.

The general was out for a short drive and had come up the Rue Rivoli. His car was proceeding at a snail's pace before it was recognized by the frenzied street crowds.

As General Pershing's face, with the famous smile, showed through the door, a French girl with the flags of half a dozen nations twined about her head screamed, "General Pershing!"

The cry was taken up instantly and passed over the seething multitudes. If there were any genadams about they were swallowed up in the enormous mob. In an instant men and women went mad and screamed his name, and all tried to reach the car.

Men picked up women and held them on their shoulders that they might get a look at the general. The mob surged toward the car in another wave.

Shakes Hands of Children.

General Pershing amidst the danger was enjoying it greatly. Instead of closing the window and urging the driver to get out before they were crushed to death, he let the windows down far enough, laughed heartily, and thrust his hand out of the door to shake the hand of a little French child whose proud father lifted her above the heads of the mob.

A child on the tonneau and shinned up the back of the limousine and frantically leaped over the giving mass and shot their hands in at the windows. General Pershing continued laughing and tried to shake as many hands as could be thrust through the window.

"Pershing! Pershing!" bellowed the mob, and the name rang from the street. The general, who was in the Champs Elysees, and through the Tuilleries gardens.

Efforts to Clear Way Fail.

French officers who had been caught up in the human maelstrom saluted and then endeavored to have the mob give way. As if by common impulse the masses seemed to understand that the great American general was in danger, and with a craning of heads and the screams of women and children a slight rift was made directly ahead of the car. Then by less than a small pace the car with frantic snorts edged along, inch by inch.

The cheering was indescribable. Along the boulevards the name of Pershing was taken up by thousands who probably did not know that Pershing was in their midst, and at one moment it seemed that all Paris was shouting. By this time the inside of Pershing's car resembled a flag shop. The children who were raised over the heads of the frantic populace tossed small flags and flowers through the window and the grownups tore the insignia from their coats and tossed it in. General Pershing was laughing hard and waving his hand back at the children, but still the flag and floral offerings poured in until he was half buried beneath the bunting, flags, buttons, insignia, and crushed blossoms.

Moves Inch by Inch.

Inch by inch the car moved and then halted several minutes as it had not supposed back against it. It was the car had been used over the battlefield of France and was built for rough usage, else it seems it must have crushed like an egg shell.

Finally the car edged out of the Place de la Concorde into the Champs Elysees, but still the mob, with hats off, arms in air, and mouths wide open, shouting like mad, surged about him. It was several minutes more before the car could be extricated and a semblance of a road made.

Even then, as the car got away up the great avenue toward the Arc de Triomphe, thousands ran after it. All Paris seemed to be rambing with a mighty noise and over the mighty noise sounded, clear and strong, "Vive Pershing!"

Troops in England First Home.

London.—The first American troops to depart homeward as a result of the signing of the armistice will be 18,000 men stationed in England. The American army expects to start the first shipment of these soldiers homeward within a few days, and to have all the men on their way back to the United States ten days later.

The plans for clearing England of American troops are incomplete, but it is desired to remove these men through the greatest safe shipping available for this purpose. Most of the 18,000 men are helping the British air force.

The American hospital units will be left in England until a policy for caring for future cases of illness among the Americans has been decided upon.

The belief is expressed at army headquarters that very few Americans will be left long in England, as it is thought that the hospitals in France can care for future needs.

German Navy Surrendered.

London.—There has just been seen the greatest naval surrender which the world has ever witnessed.

A great fleet of German battleships, battle cruisers, and light cruisers and destroyers left port for an unknown destination. They were met by the British fleet, accompanied by American and French representatives, and conducted to their destination.

A Berlin telegram received in Amsterdam gives this list of the vessels comprising the best of the German navy that were to be handed over:

Battleships—Kaiserin, Kaiserin, König Albrecht, Kronprinz Wilhelm, Prinz Regent Luitpold, Markgraf, Grosser Kurfürst, Bayern, König Friedrich der Grosse. Light cruisers—Hindenburg, Derfflinger, Seydlitz, Moltke, Von der Tann. Light cruisers—Bremen, Brummer, Frankfurt, Köln, Dresden, Emden.

Germany has been stripped of at least half of the fleet of dreadnoughts which it had in commission or building when war began, and of practically all of its battle cruisers.

Yanks in Triumphal March.

With the American Army of Occupation.—The American army of occupation, which is moving forward steadily over the territory evacuated by the retreating Germans, is being received with wild demonstrations of joy by the residents of the towns which are now being liberated after more than four years of German rule.

When the American troops entered Brieg, the heart of the Lothringian iron fields, they passed under triumphal arches that had been hurriedly erected by the people of the town, and the streets through which they passed were bedecked with flags. On one arch through which the Americans passed was a homemade American flag four feet in length, flanked by the French colors. The flag, which had been made by three French girls, had eleven stars and seven red and white stripes. At St. Leger, as the advance units of the Americans entered the town, the church bells were rung and the mayor and his wife stood in front of their home to welcome the officers. Each company contains one dose of five and correspondents, who were invited to become the mayor's guests. Women, children, and aged men crowded about the soldiers, embracing them and presenting them with flowers.

Similar scenes were enacted as the Americans reached Virton, Longwy, Audun, La Romain and other towns evacuated by the Germans.

Everything moves smoothly as the American forces proceed toward the Rhine. Some 50,000 men, with their supplies, guns and ammunition, must be moved along three main roads from railheads that get farther behind each day. The job is one that would tax the abilities of the quartermasters of any army.

Flags Flutter Over British.

With the British Armies.—Innumerable flags fluttered over the heads of the British troops as they moved forward and started on their march to the Rhine. The cavalrymen had their own guides and some of these rode with French and Belgian flags sticking out of their boots and fastened to their bridles. The gunners had flags on their limbers and the axes of their wagons; their steel traces were polished brightly. The troops, at a military tournament, and their steel helmets were shining. They had spent many hours in "spit and polish" since the day of the armistice, so they should look well. The marching troops met thousands of civilians who were coming home after years of exile. As the soldiers went forward the homecoming civilians halted to wave flags at them, astounded, it seemed by the smartness of the men who, after four years of war, rode out, spick and span from helmet to spur, on fine horses, well fed and groomed, in sharp contrast to the sorry-looking German horse flesh.

Goodness Astonished Herself.

Abigail had been frequently reminded during the days preceding Christmas that Santa Claus never remembered little girls who were naughty. She went to bed on Christmas eve conscious of her frequent lapses from virtue. The next morning she was amazed at the array of gifts which was met her. "Oh!" she sighed blissfully, as she clasped a doll in one arm and a Teddy bear in the other, "I didn't know I was so good!"

HURRY, MOTHER! REMOVE POISSONS FROM LITTLE STOMACH, LIVER, BOWELS.

GIVE CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS AT ONCE IF BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, has stomache-ache, sore throat, diarrhea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.
