This in a few words is the President's answer.

If it does not bring a capitulation which may be more than unconditional which may be more than unconditional surrender. Allied diplomats and American officials believe it may cause a revolution in Germany. Beyond Auestion, it speaks for the Entente Allies as well as the United States.

"The government will continue to send over 250,000 men with their sugplies every month and there will be no relaxation of any kind." Quite outside of the formal phraise of a diplomatic document that was President Wilson's wort to the world that he had no thought of stopping the fighting at this stage.
