Differing Views on Marriage. When a marriage is announced, the bride's woman friend says: "I wonder why they waited so long. She was getting old and crabbed." And the groom's man friend says: "What did the blamed fool marry so early for? He'd lose the best years of his life!"
—Kansas City Star.

Stork Must Be Blundered. Helen was much concerned about her red hair, which she insisted was golden. One day she came to her mother and said: "I don't see why I have red hair. You haven't red hair and papa hasn't red hair. The stork must've made a mistake!"
—Daily Thought.

Earth gets its price for what earth gives us. 'Tis heaven alone that is given away.—James Russell Lowell.

Look for the Large Chance. The opportunity that is bigger than you are cannot help you, no matter how close it comes. To be worth any thing, a chance must fit. Instead of simply waiting for your opportunity, grow up to it. Big people do not need to put up with small opportunities, and if the people find it impossible to fit big ones. If you are growing all the time, and fitting yourself for the larger chances, you need not worry for fear they will fall to present themselves.

Last Word in War Vessels. Superdreadnought is a name given to vessels of the dreadnought type. The displacement is 25,000 tons or more. The speed attained may be twenty-five knots or six miles (ten sea miles is 2000 yards), and the main battery consists of guns of 13.5 inches caliber or better. A superdreadnought is the last word in naval architecture.

ALL OVER

Wm. Condon is still bothered with the catarrh.

Mrs. John Spener of Troy is not real stout from her excesses yet.

Mrs. Ernest Anderson of Ogdons Corners is well around after a severe sickness.

A loving companion in unity here on earth is strength and pleasure producing a good result.

Jessie and George King, both of Troy, intend to work their dead brother's farm along with their farms.

Now let the heavy thunderstorm come and then spring time is blowing in a good earnest with slack France for gold.

It is partly understood that Chubbey Hill of Troy will work his wife's uncle's farm at the corner of 16 Mile and John R roads this year.

Fred King, father of Louis King, had a very fine spell on the evening of March 30, being tired very much by the scenes and death of his beloved son.

Mrs. White-Harrison of Troy and daughter Max and child recently visited Mrs. Wm. McClelland at Aceto, Agency near Niagara. Acceto is a resort for the father during his ailment scene.

Noble Louis King was buried on March 20 at Westwood cemetery in his own ground. Mrs. Wm. McClelland at that time was in Troy, where she is now at her home, whose coffin was shown with regard to the funeral. The notice was likewise being some papers is some strange attention herself to the little in the past and took in the last in prayer for some things.

Southfield Burg

Mrs. Rue Van Every has been suffering with the flu.

Mrs. Louis Haack continues very ill at her home near here.

Uses for Corks.

Have you ever tried using corks in sealing steel tanks? When a strong cork, such as a substantial hose, is applied to the cutting portion and then applied to the hose, it will be found to work much more effectively than the more common method of using a small cork. The sealing in the tanks is quite worth considering at the same time.

Guarding His Car.

A Hutchinson man shot up his car that the long way when a thief tried to start off with the car as he well known with the machine, according to the society organizer of the Hutchinson Gazette, that he is now looking for a price a few which will fit the thief's eyes and hand with a money which he has had. Peculiar Rain Tree

Rain from the foliage is an interesting phenomenon of the Canary Islands. Dr. S. V. Perez of Tenerife notes that the famous rain tree of Tereba, Canaries, grows on a broad land where the mountain mists from the trade winds collect, and by means of water tanks under the poor inhabitants of that island, where there are no springs, actually gathered enough water for drinking purposes.

The effect of the foliage in condensing the moisture is said to be evident in the morning, passing through a mist-covered forest in any of these islands.

Judicial Paltiness

In coming to the suggested paltiness with which the English judge, as contrasted with his brother on the American bench, disports from the other members of the court, Law Notes quotes from Judge Bowen in Horton vs. Welp (1914), 40 Cal. 2d 505. "I need hardly say with what indignation I differ from the view of Lord Justice Baggallay and Lord Justices Fry and I unfortunately say that I would rather trust their opinion than my own, but unfortunately the law does not allow me to do so."

Abu Simbel.

The temples of Abu Simbel are a group of rock-cut temples in the banks of the Nile. The four giant colossal statues of the king Ramses II, the temple's entrance, look out from their rocky peaks. For ages these huge figures have kept their vigil by the waters, waving yet faithful sentinels of the Nile. They are supposed to represent Ramses the Second, and smaller figures of the great king's queens and children keep watch with their husband and father.
