Council of Four in Paris Has Agreed on Most of the Peace Problems.

TREATY MAY BE READY SOON

Hint That President Wilson Would Withdraw Has Effect—Soviet Government Set Up in Bavia Opposed by Peasants—Alics Forced to Evacuate Odessa

By EDWARD W. PICKARD.

Most of the great problems outlined in the peace conference were settled last week by the "Big Four," perhaps that is to say, at the close of the week they were settled, but before this reaches the reader they may be all over again. Since that has been the way of the peace conference in the past, it is not surprising that there are still a few questions which might not be settled by the end of the week, and these are the ones which are likely to be settled by the end of the week. The first of these is the question of the evacuation of the Baltic states. The second is the question of the evacuation of the Baltic states. The third is the question of the evacuation of the Baltic states.

An important and interesting part of the treaty, which has been a subject of much discussion, is the question of the evacuation of the Baltic states. The evacuation of the Baltic states is a subject of much discussion, and it is likely that the evacuation of the Baltic states will be a subject of much discussion.

LETTER FROM THE STATE CAPITOL

PRESENT LEGISLATIVE BODY HAS DECIDED TO WIND UP ITS REGULAR SESSION APRIL 25.

SPECIAL SESSION MAY OR JUNE

Members Want to Dispose of Utilities Question in Regular Session If At All Possible.

By William Lee Calton.

The Legislature has decided to wind up the business of its regular session on April 25, being adjourned sine die. The regular session will therefore largely by the necessity of waiting until after May 7 for action on the existing bills to put into force the good public program made possible by the bond issue vote in the April 7 election.

A special session to be held later in May, or about June 1, will be called for the purpose of dealing with the utilities question. It is possible that the special session will be held in May, or about June 1, and it is possible that the special session will be held in May, or about June 1.
