THOMAS EDISON SAYS:

"Human labor is too expensive at any price to do work that an Electric motor will do."

And he is right. Washing is for a machine not for a woman. Let an Electric Washer do your work for you. It will save you clothes, time and money.

ALL OVER

What can be done without the will and luck to do it?

A man can get into anything—be a King of the town or a Thief.

Born March 24, a man who is the second child in Ohio. Father's family of Troy.

There also was empty headedness that the oldest could see of Harry Comers.

Cheaper by being early in presenting your orders to Mr. Comers, than your summer orders to Harry.

James Small of Troy is again one of the sick list, needing to be carefully nursed by Helen of Birmingham.

A thimble-stomach is seen to come flushing up the winter and as a turn point, then there comes a real young spring.

Lee Jennings and wife and George of Detroit, recently visited in the Detroit of his wife and her childhood home of Troy.

Miss Lillian Hinchel of Troy recently attended the national tournament held at Ypsilanti where the Birmingham woman third prize.

Miss Stella Hardy has agreed, I believe, with her father, to give the settlement of her estate after the marriage of Miss Mary Heath, daughter of Troy.

Anything you have done in your very own way is the best for you and profit for the pocket. It is always a matter of time, and often a matter of luck as well. Live in life. Goodbye.

The morning of May 18, which was the anniversary of the death of the late Mrs. J. H. Hardy, the mother of the late Mrs. J. H. Hardy, was celebrated in the family. Food and drink were served and all the family gathered around the table. It was a very sad day for the family.

I saw one Sunday in window of Thompson Bros. 309 Grand, Best looking piece of furniture I have ever seen as far as parlor in U. S. Congress presenting the use of that room in the house.

The Red Cross ladies and students gave on the evening of March 25 a grand concert in the public school building at Troy. The proceeds were used for the relief of the victims of the earthquake in Turkey and Syria. It was a very successful affair and all the family was present.

Good to see the Mrs. A. King of Birmingham, through the kindness of Mrs. M. S. Stephens, who was in Troy for a few days. She is a very nice person and we are glad to see her in Birmingham.

The late Mrs. J. H. Hardy, who was a very kind and generous person, is remembered by the people there to raise a fund of $200 for the benefit of the school building and grounds for the boys and girls. They are to be made for small games for the school boys for the scholars to give. I am much pleased with this idea.

The death of Louis King in his 33rd year was a sudden happening to his friends and an intense grief to the entire family. The young man was strong and healthy, some well liked by all that was known. He was at first taken ill with Spanish influenza, resulting in pneumonia and suddenly causing his death, although everything was done to save his life. He leaves a mourning father and three married sisters and two married brothers in grief. Mr. King died March 27 and was buried on March 30.

VOLE'S HEAD THIS CAREFULLY.

What a happy day for the people of Birmingham and all over the country. The first of the year is over and the people are glad to see the first of the year. The first of the year is over and the people are glad to see the first of the year.
