

LOCAL GARDENS ARE INSPECTED

WINNERS OF PRIZES OFFERED BY LOCAL CLUB WILL BE ANNOUNCED SOON.

The work of inspecting gardens belonging to Birmingham residents was taken up this week and the reports of the inspectors, who were selected from outside points, will be in the hands of the board of the club, in a few days. Much of this work in Detroit and other points is being done during September, but it is desired to have it completed early in the month if possible.

It is claimed by Mrs. S. H. Wagner, president of the club, that the prize winners probably will be announced at a home dinner to be given at the near future. The fund from which the prizes will be taken was developed in June, through the sale of 100,000 stamps and from other sources. There will be a first prize of $25.00 for the best garden, a second prize of $10.00 for the best garden, a third prize of $5.00 for the best garden, a fourth prize of $2.50 for the best garden, a fifth prize of $1.25 for the best garden, a sixth prize of $1.25 for the best garden, a seventh prize of $1.25 for the best garden, an eighth prize of $1.25 for the best garden, a ninth prize of $1.25 for the best garden, a tenth prize of $1.25 for the best garden.

NO RAISE IN LOCAL FARES

BIRMINGHAM FOR THIS REASON IS NOT GREATLY INTERESTED IN LOCAL GARDENS.

By reason of the fact that the Michigan fruit commission, in its recent findings, advised that the local market for the fruit of the local garden was not expected to raise local prices, Birmingham is not greatly interested in the contest. However, the market in the Oakland county courts this week and in order to lower the fares of the fruit of the garden, are interested where they are using local produce. The extra amounts have been charged since August 1, when the new law became effective. In the meantime, in September of last year, the Michigan fruit commission, in its findings, Birmingham was advised that the local market for the fruit of the local garden was not expected to raise local prices, Birmingham is not greatly interested in the contest.

BIRMINGHAM HAS CANNING RECORD

LOCAL GARDEN TEAM AND INDIVIDUALS ARE CHAMPIONS IN AMOUNT PRESERVED.

Achievement Day at the Bloomfield Canning Club, observed on Friday, August 29, was a most successful one for the girls and women of Oakland county who have been engaged during the past season in preserving of fruits and vegetables here. The Birmingham Victory Canners, the organization made up of girls from this village, who have been working at the center, proved to be the champions of the county, in the total amount of produce canned, receiving a banner as a result of this achievement.

GAS COMPANY RATES RAISED

LOCAL COMMISSIONERS AT HOURS TEMPORARILY ADJUSTED TO MICHIGAN LIGHT CO.

Following the action of the authority of Pontiac and Royal Oak, the village commissioners of Birmingham on Monday night's session, ordered an increase of the rates of the Michigan Light & Power Co. to be paid by the community, amounting to 10 cents per thousand cubic feet over the rate of $1.10 per thousand cubic feet. The new rate is $1.20 with a 10-cent discount for prompt payment.
