PLAN FOR WORK AMONG FARMERS

MATTERS OF INTEREST BROUGHT UP AT STATE MEETING AT GRAND RAPIDS.

Special numbers of interest to the farmers of this district and of the state at large who are interested in the formation of effective organization of the farmers in the county, state and nation, were brought up at the meeting of the executive board of the State Farm Bureau with representatives from various counties held Tuesday at Grand Rapids. It is planned to carry on an educational campaign from the office of the state secretary, C. A. Bingham, which since last February has been located in Birmingham.

State Secretary Bingham was in attendance at Tuesday's meeting, accompanied by R. J. Colvill, of Bloomfield township, who was named delegate of the Oakland County Farm Bureau at the meeting, at a session of the county bureau last Saturday. The purpose of Tuesday's meeting at Grand Rapids was to raise the state fund to put on an organization and to get the state organizations on a better financial basis. It was pointed out at the meeting that if the farmers would begin to effect a thorough state and county organization, in order to be effective, they will have to get back of the movement with their dollars. C. Sadler, Illinois member of the national organization committee, who is a practical farmer, is unfortunately not in position to work in the fields on farm but is working in the interests of the farmers at all times. Tuesday's meeting on farm bureau organization and the benefits that might be expected from it.

Secretary Bingham is at the present time considering changing the farm organization from a $5 member basis to a $2 member basis. Under the present plan $3 would be retained by the county organization and $2 would be sent to the state organization. The latter plan will put more money into the state treasury, according to Mr. Bingham, and will enable the state organization to do more work in behalf of the farmers. Mr. Bingham is also considering the plan of having the state organization handle farm supplies for members only. This would be a co-operative plan and would enable the farmers to get their supplies at wholesale prices
