CHINESE WOMEN STUDY HEALTH

Three Doctors Return From America to Begin Active Health Campaign Among Women.

ALL AGENCIES COMBINE.

American Y. W. C. A. Will Support Women's Part of Chinese Health Campaign as Part of World Service Program.

As a result of the Y. W. C. A. International Conference of Women Physicians, held during September and October, Chinese women are to have a far-reaching health program.

Dr. Lee Kahn, Dr. Li Bi Cu and Dr. Dun, three of China's half hundred women physicians, who attended this conference, are to take an active part in promoting this health program for women which will be the share of the Y. W. C. A. in the big health movement in China.

The funds for establishing these health centers, for demonstrations of how to care for babies, for health lectures for the women, for babies' dispensaries and for a general educational campaign, will be raised by the American Y. W. C. A. as part of its program of world service for women and girls in 1920.

Dr. Lee Kahn, in a recent appeal to modern Chinese women said, "Let our women's education in Peking and elsewhere fit them to go out and teach in the schools, Red Cross and Y. W. C. A., and everything else which benefits the betterment of the country, instead of staying at home to play poker and 'sparrow,' and going out to attend endless dinners, tea parties and dances."

"Let us rally our forces and help the ship of state to move safely. One person cannot accomplish much, but one or two hundred millions of women can work wonders. Let us go back to a more Spartan like simplicity of living and let us build up social service until every city in China is sanitary, every section of the town has its proper schools and every child, whether boy or girl, is sent to the schools. True social service brings democracy in its train, and we who are citizens of a new republic can help to make it truly great by preaching and living democracy at the time. Why not learn to do our household duties, dispensing efficiency to be wished upon by maids and slaves all the time?

"The status of women in China, while it is by no means to be desired, is quite hopeful when we consider that she is just emerging into the sisterhood of the nations. Our men cannot depend upon us to bear the burdens of the day, for nowhere is there a more industrious, diligent and persevering woman-hood than in China."

Dr. Lee is featuring in this country on the needs of her fellow countrywomen in the interests of the Y. W. C. A. educational campaign which plans to acquaint people with all phases of Y. W. C. A. work in the United States, South America, China, Japan, India and Europe. This educational campaign will be followed by an intensive one to raise the $3,000,000 needed for service for women through out the world.

CHINESE WOMEN HAVE FINANCIAL ABILITY.

They Carried Y. W. C. A. Campaign "Over the Top."

"China has been said about the honesty and skill of the Chinese business man," the world has neglected to mention the financial ability of Chinese women. They proved this ability in the big financial campaign of the Y. W. C. A. in Tientsin.

Originally three weeks are allowed in which to raise the budget by subscription after the finance committee has decided upon the sum necessary to carry on the work of the coming year. The Tientsin campaign was carried on entirely by Chinese women and broke all records by going over the top in ten days with a large surplus over the budget.

Minister Wants to Help.

It is only natural that one who has been relieved from suffering should feel grateful and want to help others. Rev. W. F. M. Swyndale, 458 Echo St., Moline, Ill., writes: "My wife suffered for years terribly before I took Foley Kidney Pills. I am ready at any time to speak a word for Foley Kidney Pills." Sold everywhere.

The Amateur Speculator.

Another pathetic little feature of everyday life is the way every foolish amateur speculator thinks for a time that he's a conservative investor.—Ohio State Journal.

MORGENTHAU PLEADS FOR HELPING HAND IN THE NEAR EAST

Former Ambassador to Turkey Says America Should Not Let Armenian Allies Starve.

By HENRY MORGENTHAU,
Former Ambassador to Turkey and Leader in Near East Relief.

If they were good enough to fight and die for us when we needed their help so sorely, they are good enough now to share some meager little crumbs from our plenty when they have nothing, when hundreds of thousands of them are homeless, undad, foodless and threatened with extermination by their enemies and our own.

Not far from a million Christians have been murdered by their Turkish oppressors. Hungry, terror stricken hundreds of thousands of refugees now look to the United States for succor.

Have Trust in America.

We cannot refuse. Next to their faith in God is their trust in the disinterested good will and generosity of the American people. They look to us thru the Relief Agency to extricate them from the frightful situation in which they have been left as a consequence of the war.

If we should fail to aid them, starvation and the winter's cold would go far to completing the work done by the unspeakable Turk.

I have not seen with my own eyes the misery in which the Armenians now exist. I have been spared that. But the reports which have been brought in by agents of the Near East Relief and by representatives of the Peace Conference paint a picture of wretchedness inconceivable to those who have not a first hand impression of the sufferings of the Mussulman.

Exiled From Homes.

Since the beginning of the war the Turkish Armenians have been largely refugees from their homes. A simple agricultural people, they have been exiles from their farms, deprived of all opportunity to support themselves. Year by year their sufferings have increased. Now, a year after fighting has ceased, they are still living the life of nomads, able to continue to exist alive only by virtue of American philanthropy.

These homeless people—filthy infidels to the Turk—were good enough to exert their poor might in our behalf while the war was still in the balance. Massacres of a half century had not broken their spirit that they dared not fight for right and for democracy when justice was the issue. We accepted their aid then. Surely we shall not pass them by without compassion now.

The day has passed when any self respecting man dares permit absorption in his own personal affairs to exclude consideration of his neighbor's well being. No honorable man can knowingly allow his neighbor to hunger or to go unclothed. The Christian peoples of the Near East are our neighbors. The money needed to relieve them can be spared without causing any man, woman or child in the United States to suffer.

Must Not Rest on Past.

In other years of our own free will we sent missionaries to Turkey. Our schools and colleges and hospitals have played a wonderful role in humanizing that dark spot in the world. Our riches, our educational resources, our material equipment, have been leaven in the Near East. Because we have done well in times past we have this great opportunity for the present.

The Armenians have been treated as perhaps no people in history have been treated because they are the spiritual brothers of western races.

Will America help them? There can be but one answer. Their necessity is dire, but our power is great. We are wealthy. We are a member of the family of nations. Our brothers call us. Food, clothes, money, are immediately wanted. If ever unmerited suffering called for succor the plight of the Armenians should be heeded now. A few months more and it may be relief will be too late for those myriads whom only we can save. We shall not fail them.

Lansing.—Unionizing railroad station agents is increasing work of the public utilities commission. The union has boosted wages. As a result railroads seek to discontinue numerous small stations in the state. Before this can be legally done companies must secure permission from the commission. So numerous have these attempts to abandon stations become that the commission has taken the stand that service is to be abandoned only where really warranted.

Roosevelt's Glasses

Ex-President Roosevelt was awkward and stupid as a boy until he suddenly discovered that he could not see as well as other boys.

He tells us that glasses changed his career.

Most backward children have defective eyesight. No boy or girl can do well in school who cannot see distinctly. With correctly fitted glasses nine out of every 10 improve immediately in school work.

Success in school promises success in later life. Have your child's eyes examined at the first indication of trouble.

World Conditions

Deficiencies in the telephone service which have been quite obvious for a long time are due to the unusual conditions prevalent throughout the entire manufacturing, mercantile and domestic world.

The war took men and women from their accustomed duties where they did good work and sent them in every direction to new tasks, and in many instances inexperienced people took their places.

The various industries are gradually getting back their former efficient workers, but the spirit of service has not yet fully returned; that it will come back in a short time is a foregone conclusion.

The telephone service is probably no better or no worse than the general average of the business and domestic routine.

The telephone management is in a vigorous campaign to get service back to the old standard of speed and accuracy. Nothing will be left undone to reach this desirable result.
