Basketball tonight, Royal Oak vs. Birmingham High School.

Just because you get stung once in a while don't think everybody else is.

Things have an unexpected way of happening when you least expect them.

Hot air makes some balloons go, and some men are natural born balloons.

Down to 10 Wednesday morning and that is about as cold as we will have this winter. At least we hope it is.

You never can tell who you will better broadcast the field with good deeds.

Donald Fleming says he has scores of the finest beech and maple wood which he will deliver for $2.25 per cord.

Another one of those delightful dances given by the Pythian Sisters at K. P. Hall was held last week. Music by Jones' orchestra.

February they call it a "Hard Times" party with good prizes to the hardest pressed people.

The rate of convenience around $7.00 for a year's insurance upon your automobile by the Automobile Protective Association.

Miss Mary M. Whitehead, materially March 1. Whitehead & Standard Co. is the local agent.

St. Mary's, a sister of St. Mary's, at Highland Park, Ann Arbor, a sister of the Eccentric dated January 18, 1919. If you have any more of the same, please send them to the postoffice, it will be sent to her. Mark see M. and we will do it for you.

February is on the bargain counter about "half off."

Oh, say can you see? We can't. That's all right, but we can see that it is due to the Birmingham Eccentric. Just cast your eye on the date after your name on this paper or on the wrapper—and figure it out yourself. Hey?

Who is and where is Mrs. Arthur Walker? There is a fine piece of fresh meat at the postoffice awaiting her call. It is kept in cold storage while the winter weather lasts, but it comes on warm the piece of meat will have to be buried. At least that is what is worrying the postoffice employees.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Donovan are in the South just traveling and seeing things. They have stopped over at Montgomery, New Orleans, Atlanta, Savannah, and the last heard from the traveling they were boarding a steamer for Porto Rico, and not a word from anything like a submarine, storm, or a blow out.

Mrs. C. R. Cummings gave a birthday party for her son, a charming little fellow, at the home of her friends had an enjoyable time. All wanted to "blow out" the candles on the cake and the birthday man, it is equally true that a large part of the expenditures of the war must still be met by the sale of war-savings stamps and liberty bonds.

The sudden termination of the war left the Government involved in an expense that might in part have been avoided if it had been known when the war was in its early stages that it would be so long.
