Sacrificed at Tremendous Sale-Compelling Reductions

A MIGHTY MONEY-SAVING OPPORTUNITY

We had planned months ago to make extensive alterations on our Main and Mezzanine Floors and Store Front. Orders were placed for steel and other building materials. The contractors were ready to start to work when—materials during the period of the War. We were forced to postpone remodeling until after the War.

The War made it necessary for the Government to place restrictions on all building

With the sudden and unexpected signing of the armistice, and subsequent release of steel and other building materials, the contractors have swooped down upon us ready to start to work.

Our store is filled to over-flowing with heavy stock—tremendously heavy—which must be disposed of at once. We must reduce our stocks and re-arrange our selling space to make room for contractors in order that they may work unhampered and speedily.

We cannot remember a time in the history of our store when such an overwhelming flood of values has been offered to the public. The vast importance of this event to the women of Detroit is beyond calculation.

During this great sale beginning January, there will be a series of Stirring, Value-Giving Events announced in the daily papers.
