

DANDRUFF MAKES HAIR FALL OUT

A small bottle of "Danderine" keeps hair thick, strong, beautiful.
Girls! Try this! Doubles beauty of your hair in a few moments.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yet but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.
A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and straggly. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine for a few cents at any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected and injured by careless treatment—that all you surely can have beautiful hair and color it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Adv.

NOT ALL MATTER OF NERVE

Other Things Necessary to Consider When Making Decision as to Length of Skirt.

The beautiful Gaby Dostys was walking in Fifth avenue in one of the very full and very short skirts of the new fashion.
Her patient leather boots had very high gray tops. Above her high gray boot tops her skirt—so fashionably short it was—afforded a view of her rich and lustrous gray silk stockings.
"It takes a mighty good nerve to wear a skirt as short as this," a companion remarked to Miss Dostys.
She glanced down and smiled with a certain jocosity.
"A valry good—?" she said—"a valry good—a valry good—? Did you say nerve, monsieur?"
And glancing down again she shook her head and smiled.
"Ah, no, monsieur; it is not a valry good nerve that is required—not at all."—Detroit Free Press.

WHY WOMEN DREAD OLD AGE

Don't worry about old age. Don't worry about being in other people's way when you are getting on in years. Keep your body in good condition and you can be as hale and hearty in your old days as you were when a kid, and every one will be glad to see you.
The kidneys and bladder are the causes of senile affections. Keep them clean and in proper working condition. Drive the poisonous wastes from the system and avoid acid accumulations. Take GOLD MEDAL Haastren Urinary Capsules. They are the only reliable. For sale by all first-class druggists.—Adv.

America's Foremost Citizen Called to the Great Beyond

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

Oyster Bay, N. Y.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, twenty-sixth president of the United States, who died at his home on Sagamore Hill will be laid to rest without pomp or ceremony in Young's Memorial cemetery in this village. He will be buried on a knoll overlooking Long Island sound, a plot which he and Mrs. Roosevelt selected soon after he left the White House.

In the words of the clergyman who will conduct the funeral service, "America's most typical American, known in every corner of the earth, will go to his grave as a 'quiet, democratic, Christian country-gentle man, beloved by his neighbors.'"

At request of Mrs. Roosevelt no flowers will be sent. The altar will be decorated only with laurel placed on it for the Christmas season. Also in conformance with Mrs. Roosevelt's wishes, there will be no music and no eulogy, but only the simple service of the Episcopal church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. George E. Talmage.

Quantin's Death Hastens End. Cable messages and telegrams of condolence, not only from fellow countrymen of high and low degree, but from distinguished citizens of many nations were pouring into Oyster Bay by the hundreds. All express heartfelt grief at the passing of a great man and deepest sympathy for Mrs. Roosevelt, always devoted to her distinguished husband, and one of his most trusted advisers.

The widow is bearing up bravely under the shock of his sudden death, but she soon after that of her youngest son, Lieutenant Quantin Roosevelt, who lost his life in a battle with a German airman last July. The death of Colonel Roosevelt is believed by the physicians who attended him to have been hastened by grief over Quantin's death, coupled with anxiety over the serious wounds suffered by Captain Archie Roosevelt, while fighting in France.

He was proud of his soldier sons and their heroism, but he was a devoted father and he grieved for the one who gave his life for his country as well as for the other who was wounded. He hid his suffering from the world, however, in hope that he might set an example for other fathers and mothers who had given their sons to the nation.

To the last Colonel Roosevelt had been preaching "Americanism" and he realized that his health had been shattered. It was believed that he was in service in France, and telegrams to Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, captain Archie Roosevelt, who left with his wife for Boston, where his father-in-law died Saturday, and to Mrs. Ethel Derby, who is in Aiken, S. C., with her two children.

Mrs. Roosevelt telephoned to her husband's cousin, Colonel Emory Roosevelt, New York, who started immediately for Oyster Bay to be the colonel's secretary. Miss Josephine Stricker, who also was in New York.

LETTER FROM THE STATE CAPITOL

POLITICS FLARED UP SOMEWHAT UNEXPECTEDLY DURING THE OPENING SESSION.

LEGISLATURE PRAISES TROOPS

The Senate Reduced the Number of Committees From 63 to 32—Other Interesting News.

(By William Lee Calhoun.)

Lansing—Politics flared up somewhat unexpectedly during the organization day sessions of the legislature. Lieutenant Governor Dickinson, in his opening address as presiding officer of the senate, assailed the recent campaign for the nomination of Truman H. Newberry for United States senator and suggested changes in the primary laws which would prevent the expenditure of large sums in political campaigns for primary nominations. He did not refer specifically to Commander Newberry by name, but referred to the nomination given to the commander of a certain ship, possibly the most money ever spent for any nomination for office in the history of the world had been spent. He denounced the use of money in such a manner as "un-American."

The lieutenant governor's remarks were in line with his famous letter to Newberry last August asking him to withdraw from the senatorial race. Before the November election Dickinson, running on the same ticket with Newberry, had intimated to his constituents that death would so soon still his active mind and body. It was only that Mrs. Roosevelt sent a letter to Charles Stewart Dawson, chairman of the general citizens' committee appointed to welcome returning soldiers in New York, announcing that the colonel would accept the honorary chairmanship of the committee.

"Rheumatism has invaded Colonel Roosevelt's right hand," wrote Mrs. Roosevelt, "so he wants me to write that he has relinquished his acceptance. This note is to assure you that he will be at your service by spring time."

It was at 5-14 o'clock Monday morning that the former president died painlessly. Death was due directly to a blood clot in one lung, the result of inflammatory rheumatism. "Put out the light, please," were the former president's last words. They were addressed to his personal attendant, James Amos, a young Negro, who had been in his service since he left the White House and who was sitting at the foot of his bed.

Some time later Amos noticed that the patient was breathing heavily and became alarmed. He left the room to call the nurse who had been summoned from Oyster Bay. When they returned Colonel Roosevelt had breathed his last.

They called Mrs. Roosevelt, the only member of the family who was at home. There had been a family gathering Christmas day, but as no plans were left over the colonel's coffin, the children, who were about to spend the holidays with their parents had gone to different parts of the country.

Cable messages were sent to Major Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and Captain Kermit Roosevelt, who are in service in France, and telegrams to Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, captain Archie Roosevelt, who left with his wife for Boston, where his father-in-law died Saturday, and to Mrs. Ethel Derby, who is in Aiken, S. C., with her two children.

Mrs. Roosevelt telephoned to her husband's cousin, Colonel Emory Roosevelt, New York, who started immediately for Oyster Bay to be the colonel's secretary. Miss Josephine Stricker, who also was in New York.

Colonel Roosevelt was visited twice last evening by Dr. J. A. Fowler of this village. At 10:30 o'clock, when the second visit was made, the patient explained to the physician: "I felt as though my heart was going to stop beating."

The organization of the senate and the house brought few contests for official places. In the house Thomas Read of Shelby was elected speaker by unanimous vote. He had been the unanimous choice of the Republican caucus and the two lone Democrats in the house voted for him along with the Republicans. Unanimous elections also were given to Franklin Moore, of St. Clair, for speaker pro tem; to Charles S. Pierce for reelection as clerk; and to Harry J. McGraw for reelection as sergeant at arms.

In the senate Charles B. Seully, of Lapeer county, was chosen president pro tem after he had been elected in the Republican caucus over George M. Condon, of Detroit, on a 18 to 15 vote. Dennis Alward, was re-elected secretary of the senate. James R. Davis, of Bay City, was chosen sergeant at arms. In the senate caucus it had taken several ballots to elect Davis the winner in a three-cornered contest. The Hon. Dr. Kalamazoo had the lead on the first ballot, but after the contest settled down to Bloom and Davis, the latter won out on another 16 to 15 vote. Terry Curtis, of Tuscola county, veteran of several senate sessions, both as a member and as a senate official, was made assistant secretary of the senate and H. A. Hopkins, of St. Clair, was made second assistant secretary.

Speaker Read, on taking office in the house, read a message from the governor in which he stated that he was in favor of the case of that county.

Pending the announcement of the committees of the house, to which the bills of the session will be referred, it was decided to refer to the house members in the next days of the session.

The senate reduced the number of its committees from 63 to 32, the same number as the house has. Each senate bill committee will get one chairmanship. The reduction in number was made by abolishing several minor committees, to which bills seldom if ever were referred in previous sessions, and by amalgamating others as a single committee. Four separate committees on the first persons of the state, for instance, were made into one person committee, while other combinations were made of committees on educational and other state institutions.

The first joint resolution in the senate was offered by Senator Connelly, of Van Buren county. It aims to submit to the voters of the state at the April election a constitutional amendment under which the state would be authorized to issue bonds up to fifty million dollars for the building of good roads.

Bills also were introduced in the senate to extend homestead rights to veterans of the present war, and to furnish tax exemption up to $1500 on land acquired by returning soldiers. Another bill adds veterans of the present war to those to be placed on the preferred lists for public positions.

All Italians living in America, whether citizens, "first paper men," or straight aliens, will be relieved from military duty and the military laws of Italy upon a showing that they have complied with American military laws.

This arrangement, made between the United States and Italian governments, is the result of work started five years ago by Representative DePrato of Michigan, in France, and when a short time ago he received a letter from Congressman W. Frank James, enclosing copies of correspondence between the Italian embassy and the American department of state.

It was understood that the military convention between the two countries on this subject, the Italian in DePrato's district took a day off. The agreement means considerable to many Italians in this country. All who come here before serving their "time" in the Italian army, or who "indefinite" renounce against them and are subject to punishment if they ever return to Italian territory.

New American Italians who went into the draft or volunteered are recognized by the government as citizens, having opened the doors of their homes against them. Rejection for service because of disability is not a bar, they complied with the American law by appearing for service and their status is thus unimpaired.

Murmurs of discontent are already being heard in the senate. Several of the old timers in that body were not overly pleased with a few of the committee assignments. Lieutenant Governor Dickinson, senator and his direct steps at United States Senator-elect Newberry in his inaugural address have intimated the discontent.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK, CROSS, FEVERISH

MURRY, MOTHER! REMOVE POISONS FROM LITTLE STOMACH, LIVER, BOWELS. GIVE CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS AT ONCE IF BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels needs a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When nervous, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" in a few hours—sell the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moving out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

His Chance.

A cat halted at a street corner and a man alighted. The latter had evidently not the means at hand to pay his fare by the manner in which he thrust first into one pocket and then the other. He was followed, however, from his embarrassment by a man driving an embarrassy note to the driver, with the remark: "Take your fare out of that, I know this gentleman."

The change was given and the enby was soon out of sight.

UPSET STOMACH

PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN AT ONCE ENDS SOURNESS, ACIDITY, INDIGESTION.

Undigested food! Lumps of pain; belching gas, acids and sourness. When your stomach is all upset, here is instant relief—No waiting!

The moment you eat a tablet of Pape's Diapepsin, all the indigestion pain, dyspeptic misery, the sourness, gases and stomach acidity ends. Pape's Diapepsin tablets cost little at any drug store but there is no surer or quicker stomach relief known. Adv.
