IN MEMORIAM.

"He was a man, take him for all, I shall not look upon his face again," and no man among us will be more sincerely missed. A big man with a big heart in due proportion to his size and bearing, stock manager. Afraid of nothing and ready at all times to lend a helping hand to those in need of anything, everything he possessed, and even present help in time of trouble. We have seen fond children cluster about their mother's arms without hesitation, to climb down in the warm embrace of the big man with the white mustache and ingratiating smile, as the boys were wont to call him, our beloved friend.

The smoke of his writers mail has ceased to waft its hazy cloud and make him more dear to those who mail smoke from pipes and sweet burning incense. Mrs. Henry Reed's mother was a blessing attacked for and we were not actively engaged, a treaty other would receive his ample form and from Wyoming time we got that we achieved pinching until, peace we were back again among the memories of by gone days and listening to the sap of the waves under the bow of our craft the lake turning in its bed over the plover whistling overhead, the white curling from the bow line after a half hour's respite from business we returned to earth again to hear duck tenants. Well, I must get in back home for Mary wants from quite so way this morning. Fact is, we're getting old, and with a resonant "no joke" our cheery old friend was on his way to take up the burden of family woes shed by growing with the passing years, which was absolutely certain could be attended to by no one but himself, and so we went out of our life.

VICTORY IN SIGHT

Many Are Called But Few Are Chosen at the Township Caucuses Held Saturday.

Last Saturday for most of the afternoon, our City of Town Hall was the scene of its annual gathering to nominate Town Officers, that is the Republicans gather to name the officers for the ensuing year and the Democrats go through the motions just for fun and Lo, these many years they have not elected a Town officer since Samuel C. Mills gathered in the office of Town Treasurer, and that is so long ago that if we are not mistaken he wore knee pants or knicks.

The Republicans had their usual number of voters present. Over 100 were there intent on seeing that their favorite was the nominee. The only strife appeared was in nominating a candidate for the office of Supervisor. Harry Lowe appeared in opposition to the old standby, Mr. Herbert J. Broughton, and although Harry showed up well in the nominating he was defeated. The rest of the ticket went through almost unanimously and all was serene.

The ladies were present and helped out in a very business like way. Mrs. Geo. Wood was Warden and Mrs. Ora Cassady was made Inspector of the Town Board along with Mrs. A. [illegible] Fred [illegible] was made Clerk of the caucus and Mrs. [illegible] was made Assistant Clerk. The first [illegible] was Mrs. Jessie Keyser and Miss Anna M. Peck. Miss Peck [illegible] better [illegible] than [illegible] Democrats.

We are pleased to [illegible] that the Democratic party [illegible] their attendance at [illegible] caucus. Only [illegible] voters were present [illegible] were called and [illegible] Democratic [illegible] Democrats [illegible] nominating the [illegible] and nominated Miss Mary E. [illegible] for the office of Township Clerk and Miss Mae M. [illegible] for the office of Town Treasurer.

We are pleased [illegible] nominations [illegible] in every part of the [illegible] Democrats [illegible] Republicans [illegible] Democrats [illegible] Republicans [illegible] Democrats [illegible] Republicans
