Italians Being Reused Fiume by President Wilson, Bolt the Peace Conference.

RESULTS MAY PROVE SERIOUS

Success of League of Nations Is Imperiled—Bolsheviks and Communists Seeking Ground—Victory Loan Going Well—Carranza Devoicing Monroe Doctrine.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD.

President Wilson declared last Wednesday that Italy should have Fiume because that nation is the Adriatic sea was essential to the prosperity of the Continent and other Jugoslav peoples.

President Wilson's proposal that Fiume should be a free port for all the nations should have been a bold and a bold move. The Italian delegates endorsed to throw on Mr. Wilson personally the blame for the break, asserting that just before the president issued his statement they had received from Chamberlain Lloyd George and Wilson proposals that Fiume should be a free port for all the nations should have been a bold and a bold move.

Lloyd George and Chamberlain, it was said, read and approved Wilson's statement before it was given out, but neither of them signed it. The document called for Fiume to be ruled by the great body of public opinion of this country, and probably in Great Britain and France. The Italian claims of the Jugoslavians were recognized. Italy also was recognized as a great power in the world.

What would be the result of the withdrawal from the conference? It would be to cause a delay in the peace negotiations. It would be to cause a delay in the peace negotiations. It would be to cause a delay in the peace negotiations.

Answering for John. A distant relation of mine at the age of fifty-nine became engaged to a man her senior by four years and who was fond of betting. At the wedding ceremony when the minister asked the usual question, without being aware of the bridegroom's delinquency, "Will thou take this woman, etc.," he did not hear, therefore did not answer, and the bride uttered loud enough to be heard by all in church, "John, say yes."—Chicago Tribune.
