GLASS EGG FATAL TO SNAKE

Pennsylvania Farmer's Wife Puts Deceit in Nest and Ends Repulsive Theft.

Now Bloomfield, Pa. Sheriff made a snake story as the aftermath of the theft of eggs from the nest of a turkey hen of Mrs. Thomas Ford last summer.

The hen made a nest about a foot and a half from the ground and the eggs began to disappear almost as fast as they were laid. Finally Mrs. Ford placed a glass egg in the nest and removed the genuine product daily. One day the glass egg disappeared and a large black snake that had been seen several times and had been blamed for the theft of the eggs was seen to enter the nest.

Several days ago a neighbor of Mrs. Ford's, Louis Sibley, while walking north of the house of the creek, noticed the skeleton of a large snake and a large glass egg in the region where the stomach would be. And so it is believed that when the snake was cornered and killed, he had eaten the contents of the glass egg.
