Our Missing Word

Find the Missing Word and Win the Prize

CONDITIONS OF CONTEST In one or more advertisements on this page a word has been intentionally left out. Read all the advertisements carefully and see if you can supply all the missing words. Write your answer plainly on a sheet of paper and sign your name and address to same, then put in a plain envelope and bring or send it to the Eccentric office. Only persons 15 years of age or over may enter their names in this contest. In writing your answer specify the advertisements and the line in the same in which the words are missing, giving the correct words. This page will run once a week for 10 weeks in this paper and a prize of ONE DOLLAR will be given for the nearest correct answer in each week's contest. All answers must be in Eccentric office by Tuesday of the following week. No answer received by telephone. Notice will be published in the following issue, stating that words were left out of the advertisements and who is entitled to the prize.

Do You Feel Dressed Up in Soiled, Wrinkled Clothes?

As a nation, you thought us neatness. Men learned the value of trim dress. The passing of the slovenly man and the popularity of the well-groomed follow the result of that object lesson.
The same holds good with women.
Play fair with yourself in your personal attire. Call on us and let us put your things in shape.
