ANSWER BY VILLAGE IN WATER CASE

HEARING EXPECTED TO TAKE PLACE BEFORE JUDGE COFFREY THIS WEEK

An answer was filed during the past week by Attorney W. C. Harris, on behalf of Southfield township property owners, on which Judge T. J. Coffrey handed down an opinion that a well on the part of the township, owned by the village of Birmingham, had been drilled from a well on the part of the township, owned by the village of Birmingham, and that the portion of the adjacent landowners be dissolved.

It is claimed that the portion of the township, owned by the village of Birmingham, had been drilled from a well on the part of the township, owned by the village of Birmingham, and that the portion of the adjacent landowners be dissolved.

NO PETITION YET FOR SCHOOL SITE

MRS. HELEN HARTWELL APPOINTED BY BOARD AS CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE MATTER

No petition asking for the building of a school on the site of the new school site at Woodward road has been presented as yet to the Board of Education. Mrs. Helen Hartwell has been appointed as chairman of a committee to look up the site. Residents of the village of Woodward road are expected to present a petition, but the Board of Education has not yet received one. It is expected that the Board of Education will have a meeting on Monday, and that a petition asking for the building of a school on the site of the new school site at Woodward road will be presented at that time.
