ECCENTRIC-ITIES

Woodward Avenue pavement now shows white marathon for absentee bikes. We saw a biker in front of the postoffice the other day who is evidently unused to the wake of a great city. After looking at the marks for several minutes we heard him mutter, "Hm-hmc wonder what kind of game they play here."

Water the stuff that is said to cover about three-quarters of the earth's surface—is the vital issue in Birmingham today. Now would be a good time for Bryan to make a speech—he'd be sure to get an audience for free gush.

Members of the Civic Association Tuesday night discussed the advisability of building a new village hall. Anyone who used our plan with the present edifice can offer solution the project.
